Welcome to our new website

The newly designed website improves upon our previous site in a number of ways, while maintaining the information that residents frequently come to our website to find.

About City Council: Seventeen elected members comprise the Cleveland City Council. Each Council member is elected to a 4-year term and represents a district of about 25,000 persons. Each member serves on one or more committees that discuss and vote on legislation. The Clerk is the chief administrative officer over the office of council.

Council has been Called to Order; roll call has occurred; a prayer; and the pledge of allegiance has been recited.

Public comment is happening.

Reverend Pamela Butts calls upon the legislators to work with the other branches of government to uphold and ensure protection order processes.

Ross Dibello calls upon legislature to pass resolutions to partner with private and non-profit businesses.

Jeremiah Johnson from Ward 3 reflects on Arts & Culture and thanks Council members for their actions on the creation of various committees.

Stephanie M. Goggins provides public comment on CSU Law School's name. She represents CSU law school students who advocate for the removal of John Marshall name from the school due to Marhsall's association with slavery.

That conclude public comments.

The Clerk reads Communications; many of these are Oath of Offices for positions in the new Mayoral administration of Justin Bibb.

Note: these documents may be accessed on the Cleveland City Council's Legistar.

80-2022            Congratulations Resolution for Andrea Price

Sponsors:        Joseph Jones

The Clerk has read the following First Reading Emergency Ordinances,

The rules have been suspended, and resolutions have been passed and/or referred to committee.

There were several introductions by Council President Griffin.

Council Member-Ward 3 Representative Kerry McCormack gives congratulations to the new Mayoral Administration of Justin Bibb, fellow Council Members, and new Council President Griffin.

Council Member-Ward 1 Representative Joseph Jones gives thanks to John James and Paul Arkantell (spelling).

Council Member-Ward 9 Representative Kevin Conwell also give thanks to John James. He sadly shares another young man was killed in his ward and he wants to figure out what is going on. He supports changing school names due to the individuals involvement with slavery.

Cleveland City Council meeting is adjourned at or around 7:50 PM.
