Remember the “Satanic Panic” daycare-sex-abuse scandals of the 80s they use as an example of mass hysteria? Completely true btw.

Here are some of the FBI records on it:

The Finders. A cult that was involved with international child trafficking, Satanic worship and mind control techniques. Eventually irrefutable evidence was gathered by the FBI that the State Department and CIA was involved, and conspired to cover up investigation and charges.

It all began when 6 young children - filthy and covered in scratches and bug bites and accompanied by 2 well-dressed men - were reported to police in Florida. The men went into a “trance like state” during questioning.

[REDACTED] HAS ALLEGED THAT THE FINDERS ARE INVOLVED IN A WELL ORGANIZED CHILD ABUSE SCHEME, AND THAT [REDACTED] IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT, AND THE FBI'S FOREIGN COUNTERINTELLIGENCE SECTION, CONSPIRED TO COVER UP THOSE ABUSES.

A doctor examined the children and determined two of the six to have physical indicators of sexual abuse. The doctor also found bite marks. When the children were placed into protective custody, a series of disturbing, violent phone calls were made to the child protective agency.

The men were from DC, which led investigators there where they obtained search warrants for two properties. Photographs were found of men dressed in white robes holding a goat head, children engaging in blood letting of the goat and one even holding a goat fetus.

About two weeks after the initial investigation began, it was suddenly announced that the MPD and Tallahassee police were dropping all charges due to “insignificant evidence”. The doctor went back on her word and stated publicly there was not “conclusive” evidence of sexual abuse

FBI continued to quietly investigate however. The leader of the group was identified as Marion Pettie. His wife Isabelle was confirmed to be a member of the CIA for 21 years. There were other suspicious ties to CIA and State Dept.

The McMartin preschool is then documented to have many tunnels underneath it and the children were able to accurately describe entrances and exits. There were electrical switches in the school that did not work for that purpose, but rather sounded alarm alert systems.

THE TUNNELS FOUND AT THE McMARTIN P.S. SCHOOL A PRELIMINARY REPORT

A formal report will be released when forensic tests are concluded.

- 45 foot tunnel
 - 9 foot wide subterranean entrance found under west wall of the "Dog" room (Classroom 4 [redacted] classroom).
 - Avocado tree roots cut on both sides of the entrance.
 - Disney bag, "Copyright 1982," found 4-1/2 feet below the classroom floor and 3" to 6" in from entrance and under foundation, Classroom 4.
 - Tunnel proceeded south, then east 45 feet through Classrooms 4 and 3, and north, then east 10 feet within Classroom 4.
 - Tunnels were 30" wide, 44" to 46" deep, with top of the tunnel 30" under the classroom floor.
 - The footing between Classrooms 3 and 4 was arched where the tunnel passed underneath and 12" shorter in depth at this location than same footing 12 feet to then north.
 - Four large, upright containers were found in the tunnel under the arch,

Johny Gosch's mother (the paperboy kidnapped in 1982 – the original milk carton missing child boy) is known for receiving pictures of her son after going public with accusations of a powerful and nationally connected child trafficking group as her son's abductors.

Behind a paywall but Episodes 5 & 6 of Sword and Scale podcast are an interesting look into the Franklin Coverup, another insane and disturbing case from the 80s involving child traffickers at the highest levels of power. The authoritative book is <https://t.co/GLgNQtbur4>

A lot of questions still unanswered. One of them, why are 170 pages of the FBI's records on this still redacted?

Read this and ask yourself why this investigation was shut down by the police within weeks

SILVERSTONE was located in a room equipped with several computers, printers, and numerous documents. Cursory examination of the documents revealed detailed instructions for obtaining children for unspecified purposes. The instructions included the impregnation of female members of the community known as Pinders, purchasing children, trading, and kidnapping. There were telex messages using MCI account numbers between a computer terminal believed to be located in the same room, and others located across the country and in foreign locations. One such telex specifically ordered the purchase of two children in Hong Kong to be arranged through a contact in the Chinese Embassy there. Another telex expressed an interest in "bank secrecy" situations. Other documents identified interests in high-tech transfers to the United Kingdom, numerous properties under the control of the Pinders, a keen interest in terrorism, explosives, and the evasion of law enforcement. Also found in the "computer room" was a detailed summary of the events surrounding the arrest and taking into custody of the two adults and six children in Tallahassee, Florida on the previous night. There were also a set of instructions which appeared to be broadcast via a computer network which advised participants to move "the children" and keep them moving through different jurisdictions, and instructions on how to avoid police attention.

When the FBI tried to contact DC police, they found out that the State Dept and CIA got there first.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION:

On March 31, 1987, I contacted Detective James Bradley of the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Police Department (MPD). I was to meet with Detective Bradley to review the documents seized pursuant to two search warrants executed in February 1987. The meeting was to take place on April 2 or 3, 1987.

On April 2, 1987, I arrived at MPD at approximately 9:00 a.m. Detective Bradley was not available. I spoke to a third party who was willing to discuss the case with me on a strictly "off the record" basis.

I was advised that all the passport data had been turned over to the State Department for their investigation. The State Department in turn, advised MPD that all travel and use of the passports by the holders of the passports was within the law and no action would be taken. This included travel to Moscow, North Korea, and North Vietnam from the late 1950's to mid 1970's.

The individual further advised me of circumstances which indicated that the investigation into the activity of the FINDERS had become a CIA internal matter. The MPD report has been classified secret and was not available for review. I was advised that the FBI had withdrawn from the investigation several weeks prior and that the FBI Foreign Counter Intelligence Division had directed MPD not to advise the FBI Washington Field Office of anything that had transpired.

No further information will be available. No further action will be taken.

The evidence? Destroyed.

On 2/28/87, this memorandum was brought to the attention of [redacted] MPD, the [redacted] handling captioned matter for MPD. [redacted] advised the writer that a thorough review of all evidence obtained at the two aforementioned locations did not produce any of the items described in the examples cited above by [redacted] advised no evidence of child sexual exploitation, kidnapping or any related crimes was obtained, and that there were no computerized lists ordering children. A copy of the memorandum was provided to [redacted]

The children they found in Tallahassee? Turned over to people "claiming" to be parents or guardians.

[redacted] contacts MPD Intelligence and advised that all reports regarding Finders are to be classified at the Secret level. [redacted] also advised that no information was to be turned over to the FBI WFO for investigation, and that the WFO would not be advised of the [redacted] involvement/contact.

Children discovered in Tallahassee were eventually turned over to individuals claiming to be parents or guardians. No further MPD, FBI or Customs involvement.

As far as is known, no details of [redacted] involvement ever became public.
