Truly, the heart of man is desperately wicked
1
Jeremiah 17:9 KJV
The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

Honestly, and without prejudice, the passage above deserves further reading and studying.

Studying the passage below this morning,

2.

I kept wondering what manner of wickedness this was, just because, you wanted to disgrace a people, you now want to gouge out everyone's eyes...haba?

V2 of the passage below is the height of wickedness.

3.

1 Samuel 11:1-2 NLT

About a month later, King Nahash of Ammon led his army against the Israelite town of Jabesh-gilead. But all the citizens of Jabesh asked for peace. “Make a treaty with us, and we will be your servants,” they pleaded.

[2]“All right,” Nahash said, “but only on one condition. I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you as a disgrace to all Israel!” ■■■

Jeremiah 17:9 KJV asked a valid question about the heart, it asked..." who can know it?"

Honestly, no one.

5.
Only a renewed heart, yes, a renewed heart in Christ, in all it's ramifications can override the wickedness in a man's heart.

When we do some wicked stuffs to fellow humans, "no be today e start...e don tey"

Little wonder then how our world has turned out.

6.
People fighting for god, killing in the name of religion, rituals, rape, corruption etc. The list is just endless.

A few people may say, "I am not wicked nau", fine, we thank God, but, a true test of your position, is what you do when an opportunity to avenge or revenge
