Daily reminder that none of you have any idea what your talking about and everything is exponentially more fucked up then you think. Sorry not sorry. Wake the fuck up.

None of your bullshit theories and abstractions mean anything. It's all intellectual masturbation. The eschaton is but a fortnight away. Find solace in Christ and keep the faith. That's all we can do.

Your niche twitter idealogy won't save you. Whatever flavour of the week jackoff bullshit you've embraced is literal vapor. Wake the fuck up. Your pointless discourse and political posturing just blinds you. The only thing you should have faith in is Christ.
