This is biggest misconceptions about sanatan dharma when some leftist said Bhagwan ram ji was married at age of 13-14 and maa sita was at the age of 6 ?

In B■la-K■■■a of the V■lm■ki R■m■ya■am, Ram ji accompanies Vi■v■mitra,to kill Tataka, Subahu etc. After killing them, He performed for Kshatriyas at the age of eight. Thus, what Dasharatha actually meant is "Ram has only received 15 years of training!". (In ancient India warriors needed 16 years of training). Hence Ram's age at the time of marriage wasn't 14 or 15 but rather 23. (8+15=23)

Thus it is clear That Ram went to forest at the age of $8+17=25$ years; 13 months after getting married at the age of 23. (You may wonder why 13 months after 23 isn't 24 years, but Ram married at the end of his 23rd year. Eg. 23 years, 11 months. So 13

Most of the confusion has been caused by the misinterpretation of the below verse :

I lived in th

the house of the Ikshvaku for twelve years and enjoyed all the pleasures that a mortal can. In the thirteenth year of marriage, King Daśaratha consulted other ministers to coronate Rama.

- Janaka describes Ram & Lakshman as “Samupasthita Yauvanau” (men who have reached the the prime of their youth). In literature, this phrase is used for men in their 20s. (ref. 1.50.18)

•Janaka describes Sita as “Vardhamanam”. This phrase again is used to describe a girl in the prime of her youth in Sanskrit literature. Does it make any sense to refer to a 6 year old “Vardhamanam”?

•Sita told Anasooya, that she married Ram when she reached marriageable age “Pati Sanyoga Sulabham”. According to Ayurveda a girl can’t marry before completing the 16th year and becoming 17 years old, and a boy can’t marry before 25.

(Sushruta Samhita 35.10). So clearly, Sita couldn't have been 6 years old.

- Padma Puran describes Sita as a young woman during the Swayamvar.

These all verses clear that Bhagwan ram and mata Sita were not child at the age of marriage and sanatan is not allow ■■■
