

Twitter Thread by Malathi

Malathi

@Malathi

■■ ■■■■ ■■■■■■ ■■:■

Importance of Nritya Ganapati..

Nritiya Ganapati is the dancing form of Ganesha and is one of the 32 forms of Ganapathi. Ganapati is a connoisseur of fine arts. A devotee of Nritiya Ganapati attains proficiency in 64 types of fine arts and achieves excellence in them.

In this form the Ganesha appears in golden hue complexion in dancing posture on one leg under Kalpavriksha with four hands. On his main right hand holds the tusk and the upper hand with elephant goad, on the left hand hold a battle-axe and noose.

On his fingers with rings and the trunk curled holding his favourite sweet Modaka.

Magha nakshatra is associated with this form of Ganapati.

His worship is believed to bestow the devotees with an aptitude for learning fine arts, proficiency in them, also success in that field.

