■Month of Shravan - Month of Mahadev■

Shravan maas ki hardik shubhkaamnaayen■■

In Hindu calendar,Shravan month is dedicated to Bhagwan Shiv. The whole month is considered auspicious to seek blessings from Mahadev. Devotees observe fasts during Shravan month to please Shiva.

MONTH OF SHRAVAN

This is the 5th month of the Hindu calendar when devotees visit temples to offer prayers & keep fasts to seek blessings.

Shravan month is also known as Sawan month in North Indian states. All Mondays or Somwar(s) falling in Shravan month are considered highly auspicious for fasting.

Many devotees observe sixteen Mondays for fasting.

All Tuesdays or Mangalwar in Shravan month are dedicated to Goddess Parvati, the consort of God Shiva. Tuesday's fasting during Shravan month is known as Mangal Gauri Vrat.

Shravan month in 2022 is starting from July 14 and will last until 11th of August. In Tamil calendar it is known as Avni and is the fifth month of the solar calendar.

Shravana nakshatra is the birth star of Sri Vishnu and falls on the full moon day during this time.

Everyday day of this month is considered auspicious to worship many deities, including Shiva, Vishnu, Parvati (gowri), Lakshmi and Krishna.
