Twitter Thread by BoiltOwl

BoiltOwl
@nealjclark1

Obsession with youth, vigor and vitality are not signs of an innate sympathy for truth and beauty. It is a sign of arrested development and lack of imagination. When we are young we prefer sweet. As we age we prefer bitterness. There is no end to a child's desire for sugar.