The screenshot shows the website for the Stanford Anesthesia Summer Institute. The header includes the Stanford Medicine logo and the text 'Stanford Anesthesia Summer Institute' and 'Department of Anesthesiology, Perioperative and Pain Medicine'. There are navigation links for 'About Us', 'Faculty', 'Education', 'Research', 'Diversity', 'Community', 'Quality & Safety', and 'Patient Care'. The main content area is titled 'Writing your first cv or resume'. On the left, there is a sidebar with 'APPLICATION GUIDE' for 'Clinical Science, Technology and Medicine Summer Internship' and a 'Back to The Guide' link. Below this is a section titled 'Applications Now Open' with a small image of a doctor and text stating 'Applications open for the 2022 Clinical Science, Technology and Medicine Summer Internship program.' The main text explains that the resume should be a short one-page document showcasing interests and accomplishments. It lists sections to include: Interests, Jobs if you have one, Extracurricular Activities, Volunteer work, Achievements/Awards/Honors, and Projects. On the right, there is a quote: 'No one expects a student to have a lot of work experience. Instead, share your activities and why you chose them.' attributed to Amy Price, DPhil (Oxon), Editor, The Mentor.

4. CVs and Cover Letters (Harvard)

Grab some inspiration from this 30-page document packed with examples of great CVs and Cover Letters.
