

Twitter Thread by Jaya Upadhyaya

Jaya Upadhyaya

@Jayalko1

YALAGURESHVARA MANDIR, VIJAYAPUR(KAR)

Also called 'Speaking Hanumantha'.

The Mandir belongs to the Madhwas (a sect of Brahmins-followers of Madhwacharya).

Only holy water from Krishna river is used to perform Abhisheka to Yalaguresh.

@onlyonenetra

There is a wonderful tradition carried out at the Mandir even to this day. When you want to know if your desired endeavors are going to be fulfilled or not, you are asked to sit in front of Prabhu and say your endeavor to Hanuman Ji in your mind.

@iamkamyabuch @DetheEsha

If your endeavour is going to be fulfilled, then a flower on the sacred Murti falls to his right. And if your endeavour is not going to be fulfilled, then a flower on the sacred Murti falls to his left.

@desi_thug1 @unever followme @harshasherni

If the flower falls quickly to his right that means your endeavour would be fulfilled very quickly. Or falls to his right after a long time, it says your endeavour would be fulfilled but slowly. Hence known as 'Speaking Hanumantha'.

Kartika Utsava/Yalagur Jatra is the biggest event here. It falls on 1st Saturday after Poornima in February every year. The devotees perform Pallakki Seva early in the morning. Bhimshen Joshi Ji's reputed disciple Shri Paadigaar comes on this day every year to perform Bhajans.

