Today is Triprayar Ekadashi ■

Tripayar Sri Rama Temple, ■

Thrissur,

Kerala.

The temple is dedicated to Bhagavan Sri Rama is situated on the bank of river Theevra. Theevra river is also called Purayar. Hence this place got the name Thirupurayar and later became Tripayar.

There is an interesting legend about the origin of this river. Mahavishnu during his Vamana avatar visited this place but found no water to wash his legs. Vamana took the water from his kamandalu to wash his legs, that source of water never went dry and flowing as Thiru Purayar
