And there it is. The next step in this lunatic Democrat scheme to stop Kavanaugh: throwing the FBI under the bus & attacking the agency for hiding monster Kavanaugh's real past.

Dems claim FBI knew the truth about alcohol/sex abuse all

The Democrats on the committee - minus Klobuchar and Coons - are claiming the FBI background file on Kavanaugh contains EVIDENCE of sexual & alcohol abuse and this is from BEFORE the latest background investigation this week.

This is literally the last lying gambit the Democrats have to try to force a delay of the vote - claiming there is info in Kavanaugh's background file that can't be shown to the public that demonstrates he shouldn't have passed the 5 previous investigations.

It's absurd.

This letter is claiming the FBI has had this evidence all along that Kavanaugh is some kind of raging drunk sex predator and they've sat on it and approved him anyway.

Make no mistake: this is the Democrats throwing the FBI under the bus.

And Orrin Hatch's office wastes no time in calling the Dem's out on this:

And here's @seanmdav with a great point: Dem's have had access to Kavanaugh's background file for months. If there was anything in there like they are now claiming at the last second, it'd have been leaked long ago.
