1. Griffin's deranged tweet is useful as a window into an entire generation of citizens, who were never taught how to think critically.

And who suffered a massive 'narcissistic blow' on Nov 8, 2016.

2. Thinking critically - evaluating the truth of competing claims, using evidence that you have triaged with logic & experience, is difficult.

You have to suspend inherent bias & reach an objective conclusion.

The leftist mindset is incapable, as the Kavanaugh smear proves.

3. Critical thinking is an ancient tradition, a set of skills, passed on from ancient Greek thinkers (esp Socrates) and before.

The core message? Be sceptical.and humble. What others tell you is true, may not be. Test it against objective criteria, not gut feel or 'the herd'.

4. Any person with reasonable critical thinking skills, can see that #DrFraud's allegations against Kavanaugh are not credible.

Not because she's a leftist stooge.

But because objectively, the numerous inconsistencies and untruths in her tale, render it not believable.

5. When you have no critical thinking skills, such as Griffin, all you have left is emotion. The only way to win an argument is via bullying, hectoring, smear and violence.

And lies.

You must FORCE the other side to cower and hide. To do this, you need a MOB, with pitchforks.

6. I mentioned the 'narcissistic blow' in the first tweet.

This is the moment when a narcissist's true nature is exposed.

For many leftists, this happened when Trump won the 2016 election. The night when all their self-reflecting mirrors smashed into pieces.

7. Many forget that for 8 years, charlatans such as Obama had told these people, that their grandiose view of themselves was TRUE.

What did he tell them?

Not just that they were the most intelligent, morally superior & progressive people in the USA.

Worse.

8. That they were the most amazing people in HISTORY.

Years ahead of everyone else.

Therefore, entitled to wealth, status and of course POWER.

FOR EVER.

9. Obama was the worst of the lot.

Only the most malign narcissist, could accept a Nobel Peace Prize for doing nothing.

He is on record speaking of himself, as someone with God-like powers.

But leftists lived him for it. He gave them never ending narcissistic supply.

10. In return, they looked the other way as he trampled the Constitution and rule of law, weaponized the administration against those who opposed him, divided the nation and weakened the US overseas.

No other POTUS has done more damage to America. Obama was a DISASTER.

11. Leftists are astonished when it is pointed out to them, that Obama & his stooges also destroyed the Democrat Party.

After the 2016 election, it was the weakest in a century.

It is weaker now, than it has ever been. A far left, extremist group of wackos.

12. Of course, the ultimate expression of Obama & Clinton's corruption, is their ischeme to rig the 2016 election.

But from 2008, we also see a pronounced trend of innocent citizens being targeted for destruction.

Obama LOVED spying. That power gave him huge pleasure, IMO.

13. Obama set the tone & playbook (ditto Clintons) for the politics of personal destruction we have seen play out, against innocent Kavanaugh and his family.

His footsoldiers in the Democrat Party, such as the despicable Feinstein, are using the template they were given.

14. When malign narcissists suffer the blow, they typically respond in exactly the way we have seen Griffin, Milano and the #FakeNews respond.

Screeching, unhinged hysteria.

Mixed with the ignorance that a lack of critical thought produces, it's a toxic combination.

15. These hysterical fools are gullible. Easily manipulated. Feinstein, Obama & Clinton know how to exploit them, for their own ends.

However, I'm not overly worried.

16. 30k foot view?

While it's likely that these leftists ans theie foolish supporters will continue to cause trouble in the days and weeks ahead, I'm certain that the tide has turned decisively against them.

If EVERYONE votes, they will be defeated again.

17. And again & again, until saner liberals take over their shell of a Party.

Prediction: after their mid-term hammering, we will see a civil war break out INSIDE the Democrat Party, as moderates seek to root out Obama and his crowd.

That will last through 2028, at least.

18. God knows where Kathy Griffin will be then.

If anyone cares.

So ignore their noise, folks. Let them bay at the moon. Sooner or later, they'll turn on each other.

As narcissists do.

In the meantine, we move forward.

#MAGA

The end.
