Dumeels are the unique subspecies of Homo sapiens, identified by their spectacularly low IQ, which sometimes is lower than a dumb baboon's.

They are averse to facts and logic, some are hyper allergic even, that their responses start to be crass and vulgar.

Who are these "dumeel/s". Come across this only in Twitter. Could you shed some light? <https://t.co/3RfQw9CAbi>

Their median filthiness is equal to coovum river on a hot humid summer day, with the top half capped by polished porukkis like vairamuthu and kamalagassan, the bottom most point of the lower half occupied by a specimen called kyres.

He epitomises filth which even anaerobic organisms fear & loathe.

All these Dumeels are marinated for life in something called Periyarism, some of these specimen have Che as their DP without having a clue who/what that man was

Dumeels argue vehemently that Homo erectus spoke thamizh, at the same time support Harvard Tamil chair, which reduces the antiquity of thamizh to about 2000 years to coincide with Jesus ■■■■■■

Dumeels pronounce that Hindus are not thamizhs, call them aariya vandheri, while embracing Thamizh Christians and Thamizh muslims. If you think you can tell them that AIT has been debunked, I would suggest you bang your head on some granite rock instead.

Anti-Brahminism is their lifeline, so much so that they even denigrate a brutally murdered victim's whole family.

Most of these Dumeels are educated by Kollywood movies and memes/forwards based on those movies. Most of them would be the fans of Ilaya-thalavali Vijay

For all their chest beating about Thamizh, if you think they speak lovely senthamizh, then you couldn't be more wrong. They murder the language starting from their TV channels to the streets.

Their Thamizh is so unique that while speaking, their mouth looks like going into a frenzied spasm, oru side a vaangum. Watch 'barricade' Peter's lecture if you plan on learning that unique language.
