So it's now October 10, 2018 and....Rod Rosenstein is STILL not fired.

He's STILL in charge of the Mueller investigation.

He's STILL refusing to hand over the McCabe memos.

He's STILL holding up the declassification of the #SpyGate documents & their release to the public.

I love a good cover story.....

The guy had a face-to-face with El Grande Trumpo himself on Air Force One just 2 days ago. Inside just about the most secure SCIF in the world.

And Trump came out of AF1 and gave ol' Rod a big thumbs up!

And so we're right back to 'that dirty rat Rosenstein!' 2 days later.

At this point it's clear some members of Congress are either in on this and helping the cover story or they haven't got a clue and are out in the cold.

Note the conflicting stories about 'Rosenstein cancelled meeting with Congress on Oct 11!"

First, rumors surfaced of a scheduled meeting on Oct. 11 between Rosenstein & members of Congress, and Rosenstein just cancelled it.

And then all of a sudden...

> Multiple sources now telling me there was no meeting set for Oct. 11 so there was nothing to cancel.

Don't you just love chaos? "There was a meeting! He cancelled it!" "No no you're wrong, no meeting was ever scheduled!"

This is all deliberate. Nobody knows what's really going on, which is fantastic.

Trump's ENEMIES will never figure it out until it's too late.

How's the McCabe grand jury going? We don't know.
How's the hunt for the other leakers inside Congress that James Wolfe was leaking for? We don't know.
How's the progress on DOJ IG Horowitz's FISA Court Abuse report? We don't know.

How's the progress on the declassification/unredacting of the #SpyGate documents? We don't know.

Isn't glorious? We don't know...and Trump's enemies haven't got a clue either. They are completely in the dark. They don't know the timetable.

I've spent a year patiently explaining to everyone that demands to know 'When' and 'what's happening!' that Trump can't show YOU without showing JAMES COMEY, ANDREW MCCABE, SALLY YATES, JOHN BRENNAN and JAMES CLAPPER, among others.

Some people still reject this.

We're in October now. The election is less than 30 days away. And I'm now thinking Trump made a deal with Anthony Kennedy to open up that seat on the Supreme Court & get Kavanaugh in there because just before the election is when the big bombs start dropping.

With a 5-4 liberal majority, or a deadlocked 4-4 court, the coup plotters could expect SOME cover from the Supreme Court. A lot of fallout from #SpyGate is going to be legal, and there will be court cases, many of which will go right up to the Supreme Court.

Understand me on this: I've been saying for over a year the time of real DANGER for Trump & the country is LONG PAST.

Mueller's now desperately digging through the long-deceased Fred Trump's estate taxes, looking for something, ANYTHING he can find.

So no, Trump's been past the danger of being 'taken out' or impeached for a good while now.

The issue in play right now is HOW BADLY ARE THE BOMBS TRUMP & HIS TEAM ARE ABOUT TO DROP GOING TO HIT THE COUP PLOTTERS?

Are they going to get away with it? How many will be indicted? How will they fare at trial? How long will the court cases take?

People far more intelligent & 'read in' to what's going on than I am are making these calls about the timing.

Slow.

Sure.

Steady.

Leaving nothing to chance.

Leaving no avenue of escape.

And the huge red wave coming this November is only going to help draw the net around these thugs who abused their offices.
