Twitter Thread by REX

REX
@_ImperatorRex_

IMPORTANT: Rosenstein was one of 46 USAs AG Sessions ordered resign, on March 10, 2017.

TRUMP had nominated RR as DAG on 1 Feb. Trump refused RR's resignation.

RR was confirmed by the Senate as DAG on April 25, 2017. Within weeks, he helped fire Comey.

Connect dots.

Rosenstein has been shrouded in ambiguity and suspicion ever since Mueller was appointed, in May 2017.

The Hannity Posse on FOX, as well as Tea Party GOP Congress, have been absolutely hammering his bona fides since Day 1.

IMO they either know it's BS, or have been fed misinfo.

Trump is a master of deception.

In fact, he is so good at it, many people seriously believe that Jeff Sessions, RR and Wray - ALL Trump picks - have hoodwinked the wily construction magnate.

So, Trump has been FOOLED not just once, but THREE times. Do you believe that? I don't.

Far more likely?

It's on Trump's strategic interests to portray RR as an enemy and Sessions as an incompetent buffoon.

It throws out baits to Trump's ARROGANT enemies and makes them complacent.

They fall for it every time. Proof?

His Clinton-linked arch enemies in the FBI allowed RR into their plan, to attempt an insane 25th amendment coup on an inaugurated POTUS.

McCabe, Baker etc etc.

They KNOW RR has screwed them, hence the recent McCabe inspired (failed) attempt to get rid of him.

RR probably recorded everything. Every interaction, private email, all comms, meetings, conversations.

EVERYTHING.

Trump & RR have now guessed that the crooks KNOW. It's likely that's why Trump & RR has a chat on AF1.

Time to wrap things up.

Let's see what happens.

RR has certainly paid his dues. Trump seems impressed.

I assume RR will stay on as DAG. Job done, he may slink away. Or he may stay on as DAG, under Sessions.

There's some VERY tough prosecutions coming up, after all.

#MAGA

The end.