The year is 2023

You & your squad pull up to your kids soccer game in your cars that were paid for with one weekends sale.

You’re spouse didn’t make the game, they are picking up your other friends from the airport

You guys are flying out to Fiji

Everyone is in great shape

Everyone makes 350k a year but lives frugally

Everyone works for themselves

Everyone’s kids are best friends

Everybody eats.

Nobody remembers the last time they were forced to do shit they didn’t want to.

The whole tribe is unfuckwithable

Life is beautiful
