Jagannath ji and Dasia Bauri

A famous story of Bhagwan Jagannath ji ■

#story

Jagannath ji always hears people who call him of love, affection, and devotion. This is a well known story of Dasiya Bauri an ardent devotee of Jagannath Ji. Dasia was born in a low caste family

He believed that it was his sin of the previous birth, he is born in a low caste, and only by praying to Jagannath will save him from cycle of birth and death.

Once people from his village was going to Jagannath Mandir. Poor Dasiya had nothing to offer other than Coconut.

Village's laughed at this but accepted it. Next morning they were surprised to find shell of coconut where they left the offering. From next year he used to send Mangoes which was accepted by Jagannath Ji. When Dasiya had nothing left with him to feed his family, Jagannath ji came to dream of King and asked to feed Dasiya.

Bhagwan always hears to his true devotees. In front of him all are equal.
Jai Jagannath ■■■
