Lemurians never had the concept of God, no temples, no rituals.
Even before Prophet or Jesus, they followed those tenets.
They were the most intelligent in the world, but Evil Arya Parpanars cunningly controlled them, built temples and branded them as Hindus.

Thousands of Years back, lemurians taught the world to speak and that language was Tamil.
Many languages still have so many tamil words, but they do not accept because of Evil Aryans who confuse them that it is all Sanskrit.
Sanskrit was derived from Tamil, Aryans stole grammar

Even before Islam and Christianity was known to world, Tamils were practising it. Tamil kings like Chola, Chera, Pandya ruled the world along with Turks, Constatine, Mughals, but Evil Aryans always wrote false history and termed Tamil kings as Hindus.
Gautam Buddha was Tamil.

Evil Parppanar copied Buddha's speeches and wrote Vedas. Vedas was written 200 yrs back by Parppanar Scholars, they appropriated Buddhist Pagodas and converted them to Temples.
In 20th Century, was born the saviour of Lemuria, EVR. He ushered revolution, abused Parpanar.

EVR ensured that no Parpanar or his generations could control Lemurians, only he could control them. He abused as he wished, was supportive of Islam/Christianity, spoke about 'Social Justice', which ensured equality for women. 2 women could marry 1 man..

Lemurians staple food was Briyani, Beef fry & Beef Briyani was most consumed.
