PENGUIN CLASSICS

SENECA

Letters from a Stoic

1. "If you live in harmony with nature you will never be poor; if you live according what others think, you will never be rich."

2. "Enjoy present pleasures in such a way as not to injure future ones."

3. "It is not the man who has too little that is poor, but the one who hankers after more."

4. "Associate with those who will make a better man of you."

5. "Regard [a friend] as loyal, and you will make him loyal."

6. "To be everywhere is to be nowhere."

7. "For many men, the acquisition of wealth does not end their troubles, it only changes them."

8. "There is no enjoying the possession of anything valuable unless one has someone to share it with."

The world is holistic.

You need multidisciplinary thinking.
