I own 7 stocks that are 15+ baggers (and counting)

Here are 10 traits they all have in common:

The data:

Stock / # of bags / purchase year:

$AMZN / 15+ / 2010
$FB / 15+ / 2012
$GOOG / 15+ / 2009
$MELI / 15+ / 2011
$CMG / 20+ / 2012
$NFLX / 60+ / 2010
$TSLA / 60+ / 2012

1: Founder-led

$AMZN - Bezos
$CMG - Eills
$FB- Zuck
$GOOG - Page
$MELI- Galperin
$NFLX - Hastings
$TSLA - Musk

Founders tend to be:

- +Detail oriented
- +Innovative
- +Mission driven
- +Think long-term
- +Have skin/soul in the game

Look for founders!

2: Consumer-facing

All of these companies attract millions/billions of consumers

This eliminates customer concentration risk and enables long-term brand building

3: High sales growth

All of these companies were growing revenue 20%+ BEFORE I bought them

Sales growth is the engine that drives profit growth

Profit growth is the engine that drives stock appreciation

Find companies that can grow sales 20%+ for decades

4: Word of mouth advertising

The best advertising is no advertising

Invest in companies that make products/services that are so good that their customers do all the marketing

5: Category Mindshare

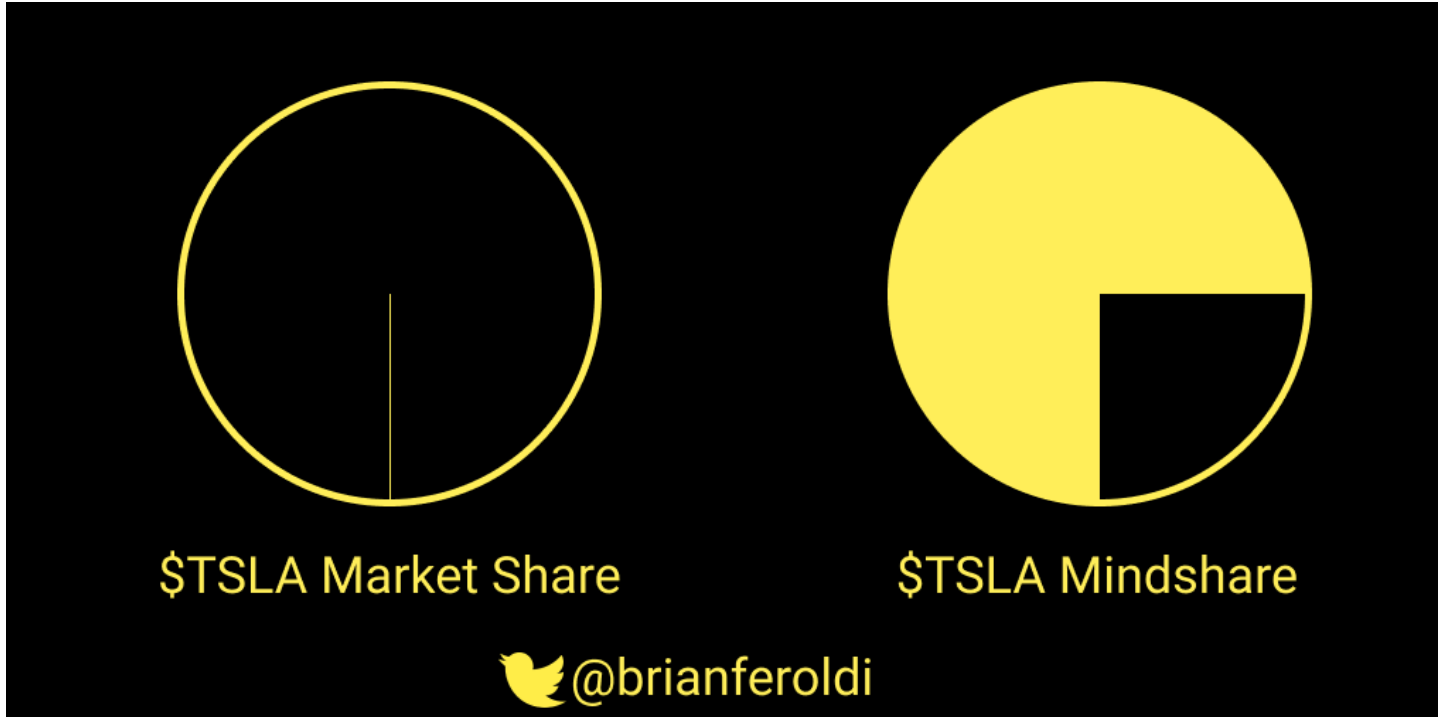

■■■Name an electric car company

■■■Name a search engine

■■■Name a streaming service

The odds are good that you said Tesla, Google, Netflix

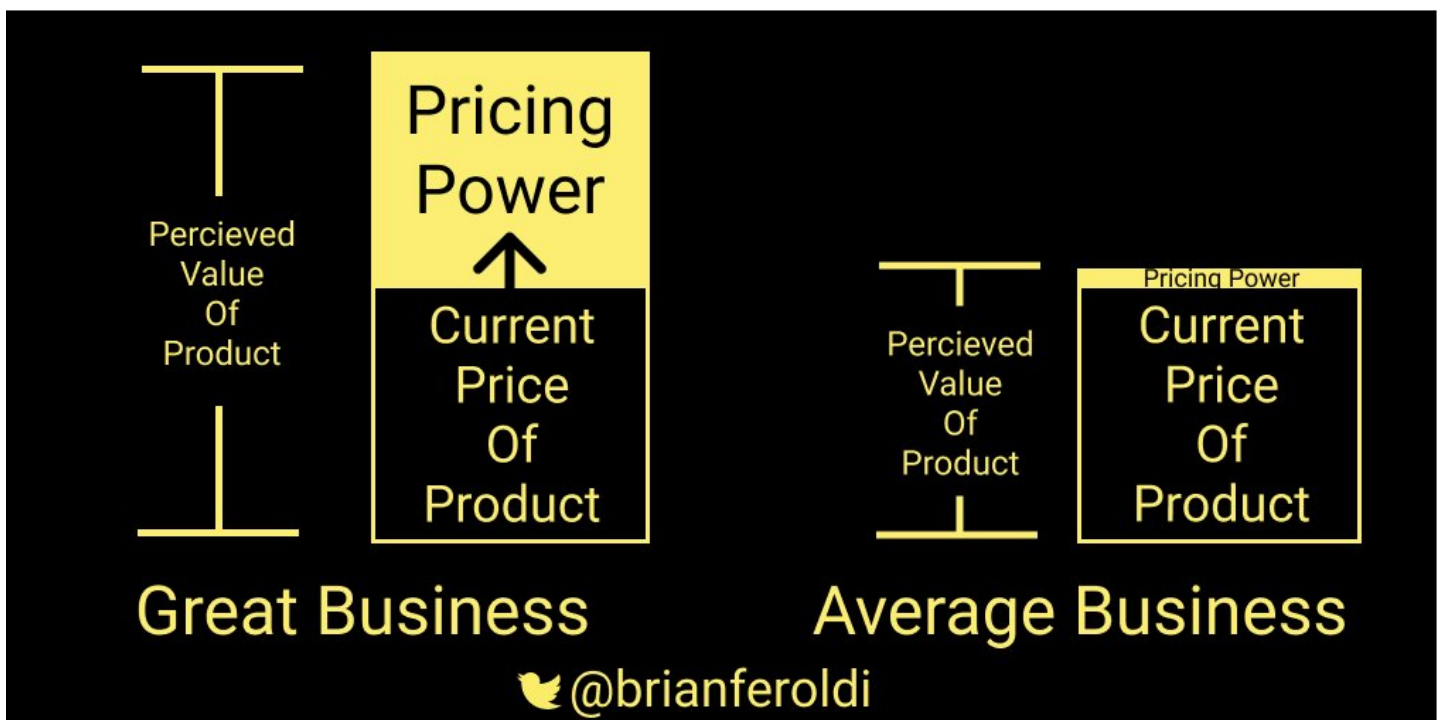

Find companies that grab all of the mindshare in an important, emerging market

6: Pricing Power

- ■ If $AMZN raised prices, would you notice?
- ■ If $CMG raised prices, would you notice?
- ■ If $NFLX raised prices, would you cancel?

Find companies that create so much value that they can raise prices and not lose customers

7: Optionality

$AMZN Bookseller → ■ AWS / Everything Store

$MELI eBay of Latin America → ■ PayPal of LatAm

$NFLX DVD-by-mail → ■ Streaming

$TSLA Sports cars → ■ Energy Storage

Look for companies with innovation & experimentation built into their DNA

8: Massive opportunity

■ ■ Facebook wants to connect the world

■ ■ Netflix wants to entertain the world

■ ■ Tesla wants the world to switch to sustainable transport

All of these opportunities are measured in the hundreds of billions (if not trillions)

9: Widening Moat

All of these companies widened their moat over time

Moat sources:

- Network Effect
- Switching Costs
- Low-cost production
- Brand

Look for companies that are building a lasting competitive advantage

10: Distinctive cultures

- $NFLX 125-slide culture presentation
- $TSLA attracts people who believe deeply in Tesla's mission
- $AMZN culture celebrates experimentation

Great cultures attract great employees

Find cultures that stand out!

Important:

To earn multi-bagger returns I had to hold through:

- 50%+ declines
- Short-seller reports

■■Public Relations fiascos

If my behavior was wrong, I wouldn't have earned multi-baggers

This is why I always:

Interestingly, aside from $MELI, none of these stocks were “hidden”

I had heard of:

- Amazon
- Chipotle
- Facebook
- Google
- Netflix
- Tesla

YEARS before I became a shareholder

Sometimes, great investments are obvious

What company checks all of these boxes today?

One idea: Peloton $PTON
