An "Aquarium" needs cleaning in my opinion, but who am I, a mere monkey, to give advice?

Astonished at what @bellingcat discovered about GRU & FSB operations

Every time Putin talks about "our special services," his signature smirk appears on his face, and in his words there is poorly concealed bragging

"Of course, we knew everything in advance"

[&]quot;Yes, we are looking"

[&]quot;Mercader has already been sent"

[&]quot;World-class professionals"

Putin clearly loves all these spy games. He is very proud of the special services and therefore endlessly increases budget funding for them.

This is his top priority.

The elderly dictator cannot understand one thing:

there are no effective special services in a state that is completely corroded by corruption. You won't have honest professionals at your fingertips if your son-in-law buys shares of a state company for $ 100, the real value of which exceeds $ 380 million.

The FSB is just as rotten and stinks of corruption as all other government mechanisms. Therefore, instead of true Mercader, like Billy, they send a squad of cretins and losers to kill.

Those who first fail the task, then leave many traces, and as a result, one of the boobies also tells the details of the assassination attempt on a regular phone to a person who simply calls the name of his boss.

I want to congratulate Alexei Navalny with the way he put on the shelves both Putin's lies at the press conference, and the attempt itself. This is an incredible job and an outstanding result.

And I would like to say a few words about Vladimir Putin.

No self-respecting man will use poison to eliminate an enemy. Poison is a coward's weapon; a sneaky way to get rid of an enemy. So let's call a spade a spade: Russia is headed by an ordinary scoundrel, coward and criminal.

If followers get offended by my occasional vicious attacks on governments of different countries, understand I hate all of them, some more than others depending on their degree of malevolence, hypocrisy, brutality and tyranny.
