Life & Business Advice from LegacyFuel

a Collection of Tweets that will change ur life don't enter 2021 without it

1 RT = 1 obscure business insight i'll start.....

the dilemma that most young Entrepreneurs have they want the Clout of a Personal Brand without the Track Record of Multiple Successful Businesses

that's how you fade into obscurity, because the quality of your content can only be as good as your Knowledge Base every dude should strive to have $50K in the bank that amount will allow you to bootstrap in most USA states & countries with $2k a month for up to 2 years having that Runway will give you the Freedom to build businesses that U really want instead of ones out of Desperation

i spent a good chunk of my 20's "uninstalling" Toxic Ideas about Money, Wealth, Life if ur a Rich Kid, u have a Sick Advantage from the Get-Go because u already have the Software installed

if ur a Broke Kid on $ Twitter, ur already in the Best Place to get ur Software Updated noobs always ask

"what's a GoOd OnLiNe BuSiNeSs?"

as if theres some corner of the internet where everybody is making trillions and everywhere else is Dry

U can sell ANYTHING

the question is "what do you enjoy thinking about or doing?"

then u build a Business around THAT College debt is overrated

if you go into tech/engineering, you could pay off $50K in a few years EASY

the problem is that most kids that go to college study some dumb shit like Mayan LGBTQ+ History

NOBODY in the market is hiring for that u stupid fuk the "Internet Marketing" Industry is 99% Broke Dudes trying to fake their Earnings to get accepted into Private Groups that contain people who actually know what the fuck they're talking about then they get in the Group and steal shit from the guys actually doing something too many dudes takin opinions on politics when the only opinion you should have is that it's pretty pathetic to be bitching about politics while u only have $32 in ur bank account

"can u send me a proposal"

"waste the next hour of your life writing up a few pages of bullshit that i won't open"

don't write a WORD until you've scheduled a follow-up call to go over the Proposal and Seal the Deal. if they don't reschedule, they kicking Tires most business/self-help books are about 25 pages of bomb ass material and 200 pages of fluff they say the same thing in 10 different ways to fill up pages for dence, Low IQ Airport readers

Skip to the good stuff, jot it down, then toss it

Most of the successful Ecom guys I know got their first "big break" from some Loophole in Google, Amazon, or Facebook and accidentally made $50K in a month

then they took that $50K and used it to build a Real Brand

Most would not publicly admit this tho i've said it once and i've said it before if u r Broke As Fuck,

-quit drugs
-quit women
-quit drama

Accumulation of Dollar Bills should be ur Only Objective anything else at that point is a Waste of Time i hired this guy recently to help me do Market Research and develop a new MVP this fucken guy wanted me to make a "Startup" create some new CrAzY NeW tHiNg that has never been done before

wat a waste of time

let the Dummies Trailblaze

then Piggyback on their proven idea

Pick ONE mentor that has the level of success you'd like to have

Get their ENTIRE lifes work..

ALL of their books, video courses, etc

Spend 1 month ONLY listening or reading to them.

On your walks, when you wake up, before bed..

This will change you faster than anything else

A lot of online "side hustles" will fuck you over long term

-selling garbage Kindle ebooks
-selling fidget spinners on Shopify
-selling feet pics on Onlyfans

You will get comfy with the trickle of money and never transition into building Big Boy Brands

Don't fall for the trap!

The reason why you spend more than you make is because you consider your CREDIT to be your MONEY

Stop for a moment and pretend you didn't have ANY credit

Now, how much CASH do you ACTUALLY have?

Focus on that number...

Let it sink in...

Got it?

You're broke as fuck, son.

How you do 1 thing is how you do everything

Can't focus on 1 book? = Can't focus on 1 biz Ditch your friends alot? = You'll ditch your clients alot Always late to movies? = Always late to meetings

Start connecting the small things to the big things & you will get to the SOURCE

YouTube Lead Gen

1■■ record Tutorial Video

2■■ say at beginning of video

"if u wanna take it 2 the next level, book an intro call below"

3■■ put link to Leadpage in Description

4■■ add Calendly booking form to Leadpage congrats now u have a business and it cost u Zero Pennies

If you make less than $10K a month

You should be OBSESSED with money

-Masturbate to money
-Listen to songs about money
-Read about money

Money is your girlfriend, your hobby, your education, your entertainment...

It's a life or death situation...
