No one puts the business success in simpler, more straightforward terms than @SalesNotepad

Don't be like the masses:

https://t.co/VRoCBcGZNf

> Why most don\u2019t succeed:
> 1. They start
> 2. They see progress
> 3. They slow down
> 4. They start comparing
> 5. They lose motivation

Think about the future, the long term, never short term:

https://t.co/t00cJ26MnS

> Banks don't like Bitcoin.

There is no growth in comfort:

https://t.co/lSn5MZd6fx

When you start something new you feel:

- Lost
- Stuck
- Excited
- Nervous
- Motivated
- Uncomfortable

As you continue, you need to feel the same.

It means you are learning.

Uniqueness is what counts. The opposite doesn't:

https://t.co/dVuQBVCeiN

Them: "No one likes me"
You: "No one is like me"

Successful leaders are unique; be yourself.

Motivation also counts:

https://t.co/OEgxvwapNA

Comparing yourself should lead to motivation, not envy.

Be self-aware:

https://t.co/XaWs0KyHao

- Feeling lazy
- Feeling tired
- Feeling angry
- Feeling scared
- Feeling worried
- Feeling burnout

You win when you recognise and act on these feelings.

— Sales Notepad \U0001f4d2 (@SalesNotepad) September 7, 2020

Self-reliance is critical:

https://t.co/WF667JydJl

Be loyal to your employer, but do not "marry" them.

They can ask for a "divorce" any day.

— Sales Notepad \U0001f4d2 (@SalesNotepad) October 5, 2020

10/12

Never get too complacent:

https://t.co/o3GUQsKsDF

Wrong thinking if you relax after achieving a goal.

— Sales Notepad \U0001f4d2 (@SalesNotepad) October 5, 2020

Treat yourself, and your life, with respect:

https://t.co/zLWSp7H2O4

> You need to polish your life every day.
>
> Treat your life like a diamond.
> — Sales Notepad \U0001f4d2 (@SalesNotepad) September 25, 2020

What exactly are they celebrating?

https://t.co/2XLGlrpN1J

> Your friends: \u201cI never see you partying\u201d
> You: \u201cI never see you making money\u201d
