this is not my dog. she’s been following me for about a mile. I ran past her owner and she took off following me. she’s a lovely pup but if you have a dog off-leash (esp on a trail where dogs are not allowed) make sure she’s not gonna follow the first person who runs by what do I do now? should I cancel my run and go find owners? I don’t mind but it’s frustrating that folks aren’t more responsible UPDATE: this kind woman offered to attempt to get the puppy down and back to her owners. So long beautiful blue eyed dog. I enjoyed our forbidden time together
