Having a reliable scanner can help you find trading opportunities faster and more efficiently, saving you valuable time and effort.

In this thread, we'll be sharing a few of our favorite scanners that have helped us stay on top of the market and make informed trades. ■

1. 52-week high scan ■

In this scan, you can find stocks that are within the 30% range of the 52-week high and are trading above the 30 and 50 EMA, making them a perfect candidate for breakout plays.
