

Twitter Thread by Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II

Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II

@RevDrBarber

Jesus said the Gospel is about good news to the poor, welcoming all people, caring for the least of these: the immigrant, the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned. Christian nationalism attempts to sanctify oppression and not liberation. It attempts to sanctify lies and not truth.

At best, Christian nationalism is a form of theological malpractice. At worst, it's a form of heresy.