

Twitter Thread by Dash Dobrofsky

Dash Dobrofsky

@DashDobrofsky

It seems as if nothing materialized from the FBI's seizure of Republican Scott Perry's phone. Nor did any indictments emerge after the seizure of John Eastman & Mike Lindell's phone. Same goes for Rudy Giuliani & Sidney Powell. What does this mean for the fate of Donald Trump? /1

Either there is a "grand plan" in the works, or there is simply no plan. It is quite remarkable, however, that nearly 2 years have passed since the Insurrection -- and no higher-ups have been held accountable. Even Bannon & Navarro remain free to spread more lies on RW media. /2

There are also others, like Republicans Marjorie Taylor Greene, Matt Gaetz, Jim Jordan, Paul Gosar & Andy Biggs -- who all sought pardons after January 6. From the outside, there does not appear to be any investigations into them. Instead, they were re-elected into Congress. /3

I cannot make any definitive claim about Merrick Garland and his Special Counsel selection of Jack Smith -- but I can explain what I have seen thus far. And thus far, there has been no legal accountability for any Republican lawmakers who broke the law, including Donald Trump /4

They may indict tomorrow. They may indict next month. Or they may indict next year. Nobody, other than Merrick Garland & Jack Smith, knows what will happen until either sweeping indictments are issued, or none are thrown down at all. Nobody can factually claim to truly know. /5

All I will note, is that the longer this process takes -- which AG Merrick Garland's decision to appoint Special Counsel has undeniably elongated the process -- the more the GOP and Donald Trump are allowed to openly threaten Democracy and the safety of the American people. /6

All the "experts" are split about DOJ's decision. Only time will tell. I will continue to use my platform to demand justice for the crimes that I witnessed on January 6. All we can do, as citizens, is express our First Amendment right to hold the Justice Department accountable./7