@punished_cait part of the problem is many anti-choice folks ARE that selfish. i look @ conservative porn in an academic way (bc someone has to i'm asexual so it's all bizarre to me). there is quite a lot of content written by women or men posing as women sexualizing late-term abortions

@vigneshr4m this isn't something i'm particularly jazzed to talk about but i think it is important. there is a serious problem with the fetishization of pure cruelty, a lot of which is obviously directed at women, but also children, infants, and fetuses.

@vigneshr4m there is more than one account making porn memes about repeatedly having late-term abortions on tumblr replacements like bdsmrlr

what happened when tumblr destroyed itself is people got pushed onto even more poorly regulated replacements. MAGA csa content is everywhere on bdsmrlr
