Twitter Thread by ripx4nutmeg

ripx4nutmeg
@ripx4nutmeg

Here's a thread on just some of the males who have gone on to win women's sports events - including how they performed in the men's category before they started identifying as women

2017: CeCe Telfer is ranked 390th among male NCAA Division II athletes in the 400m hurdles category
2018: Telfer 'transitions'
2019: Telfer is national NCAA Division II women's 400m hurdle champion 2021: Telfer hopes to qualify for the US Olympics
https://t.co/CrIK7YuJo0

1998-2012: Laurel Hubbard fails to qualify for a single international men's tournament as a professional weightlifter
2013: Hubbard 'transitions' (aged 35)
2014-21: Hubbard qualifies for 11 international women's tournaments, including the Olympics
https://t.co/EqBgmJeccs

2013-15: Hannah Mouncey made 22 appearances for the Australian men's handball team, scoring 0 goals
2015: Mouncey 'transitions'
2018: Amid controversy, Mouncey is allowed to play 6 times for the Australian women's handball team, scoring 23 goals
https://t.co/svz78mifWG

Pre 2015: Golfer Hailey Davidson won 0 men's tournaments (in fact it doesn't look like Davidson even qualified for any tournaments)
2015: Davidson 'transitions'
2021: Davidson becomes the first male to win a women's professional golf tournament
https://t.co/EqwzNqJZDD

2019: Mary Gregory, who had 'transitioned' as an adult, took up professional women's weightlifting and, at Gregory's first tournament, won all nine events at the 100% Raw Weightlifting Federation competition, breaking four world records in the process
https://t.co/YpdVb2GoZc

Pre 2006: Fallon Fox served in the US Navy
2006: Fox 'transitions'

2012-14: Fox becomes an MMA fighter, winning all but one fights; in one fight fracturing a woman's skull
https://t.co/us9Ceovf8r

2011: Rachel McKinnon / Veronica Ivy 'transitions' (aged 29)
2012-18: McKinnon / Ivy takes up professional women's cycling and wins the UCI Women's Masters Track World Championship for the women's 35–44 age bracket
https://t.co/udaOzWdmDi

After 'transitioning' as a teenager, Maxine Blythin played cricket for both a men's cricket team where Blythin had a batting average of 15, and the Kent women's cricket team, where Blythin had an average of 124 and was named women's cricketer of the year
https://t.co/4JPVJpfAeS

'Before transitioning and competing in the women's events, Kenzie Statz didn't fare well in the men's competitions. But [now] the transgender cyclist finishes more than 10 minutes ahead of the next closest competitor.'
https://t.co/Vo8BfRu0pL

Pre 2017: Tiffany Abreu is a volleyball player in Brazil's men's Superliga A & B divisions 2017: Abreu 'transitions'
2018: Abreu breaks Brazil's women's Superliga's single game scoring record against a team that contained three Olympic gold medalists
https://t.co/Qye8r547GS

Pre 2018: Valentina Petrillo wins 11 Italian men's Paralympic titles in a career that's coming to an end
2018: Petrillo 'transitions' (aged 44)
2020: Petrillo wins 3 gold medals at the women's Italian Paralympic Athletics Championships in just 24 hours
https://t.co/SelWufEL9C

Gabrielle Ludwig 'transitioned' to a woman aged 50, in 2012, and immediately joined Mission College women's basketball team. Ludwig, who is 6 foot 8, 'led the team in scoring with 17 points a game and led the state in rebounding with 18 a game'
https://t.co/WHOApUtvis

2014: Chelsea Wolfe 'transitions' and, the same year, takes up BMX cycling
2017: Wolfe switches to BMX Freestyle after discovering it's an Olympics event 2021: Wolfe is set to be one of the three Team USA BMX Freestyle women to qualify for the Olympics
https://t.co/bNlbkPSzTD

2018: Sprinter Terry Miller 'now identifies as female' 2019: Miller wins the girls' 55 metre dash at the Connecticut Open Indoor Track Championships, breaking the girls' state indoor record. Second place goes to Andraya Yearwood, who also 'transitioned'
https://t.co/UjQ1B5PuLX

Up until 2012: Jillian Bearden is an elite men's cyclist but didn't quite make it to a professional standard 2014: Bearden transitions (aged 34)
2016: Bearden wins the Arizona El Tour de Tucson and becomes a professional peloton cyclist the following year
https://t.co/6dmFCvrN70

2007: Amelia Gapin took up running but failed to qualify for any major events
2012: Gapin 'transitions'
2016: Gapin is given a women's slot at the Boston Marathon
https://t.co/z8blgRyokc

Michelle Dumaresq took up professional downhill mountain biking five years after 'transitioning'. Dumaresq went on to win the Canadian National Championships two years in a row
https://t.co/LvmLCq6TIJ

2012: Savannah Burton plays for Canada's men's dodgeball team, but it doesn't work out and Burton quits dodgeball
2013: Burton 'transitions'
2015-17: Burton returns to dodgeball and plays for Canada's women's team at two successive world championships
https://t.co/73jCO4SAGJ

Athena Del Rosario 'transitioned' and became a women's NCAA football goalkeeper. Del Rosario has now taken up beach handball and hopes to qualify for the 2024 Olympics https://t.co/cffhFN3Q9q

Natalie Van Gogh 'transitioned' in 2005 and took up cycling. Van Gogh has now been a professional women's cyclist for nearly a decade, winning at least two major events in that time
https://t.co/2oq0AW7TGm

Jessica Platt 'lived for' ice hockey but failed to make it professionally and quit the sport for seven years. During that time, Platt 'transitioned'. Since then, Platt has returned to the sport, making it as a professional for two Canadian women's teams
https://t.co/5Yz5KVsQnG

2020: Mara Gómez, who had recently 'transitioned', 'signs a contract with Villa San Carlos in the recently professionalised women’s Primera División, after years of journeying through the amateur leagues'
https://t.co/DlIF47zqIT

In 2009, Chris Bruce 'transitioned' and was competing in women's bodybuilding events by 2011 - 20 years after competing in men's bodybuilding events
https://t.co/TVkTeQp3nb

Juniper Simonis played competitive sports before 'transitioning', to no apparent success. Since then Simonis has won the Women's Roller Derby World Championship four times
https://t.co/nKprE37isG

Caroline Layt played men's rugby league before 'transitioning' aged 30. Layt then took up women's rugby and was a finalist for 'women's player of the year'
https://t.co/O7XAaYd3z1

1998: Parinya Charoenphol takes up kickboxing, winning one fight
1999: Charoenphol 'transitions'
2006: Charoenphol is allowed to compete in women's kickboxing, and goes on to win 20 fights, 18 by knockout
https://t.co/Wx3IOipnJe

2000: Lauren Jeska 'transitions' and takes up fell-running
2010-12 Jeska wins numerous women's events including the 2012 British Fell Running Championships 2017: Jeska is jailed for the attempted murder of a coach who asked to see Jeska's hormone levels
https://t.co/NssNrqW6Vx

JayCee Cooper was a men's competitive curler and rower, who 'transitioned' before 2019 and took up powerlifting. In 2019 Cooper became the USPA Minnesota Women's State Champion while setting the women's bench press record
https://t.co/byiv5KDxBS

Up until 2020: Kate Weatherly competes in the New Zealand men's downhill mountain bike open division (the grade below elite) but fails to win any events
2020: Weatherly 'transitions'

2021: Weatherly wins the New Zealand elite women's national championship
https://t.co/LRpTLXUry9

2012: Stephanie Barrett has sex reassignment surgery
2016: Barrett takes up archery
2018-21: Barrett wins gold at the Canadian Championships, breaks the Canadian women's archery score and qualifies for the Tokyo Olympics in the women's individual recurve
https://t.co/m0qgeyqLJc

2003: Alana McLaughlin joins the US military; becomes a special forces sergeant 2016: McLaughlin 'transitions'
2021: McLaughlin competes for Combate Global in women's MMA fighting (& is treated as inspirational by The Guardian for wanting to beat up women)
https://t.co/vricsUFHrB

2018-19: Lia Thomas twice fails to make the first team in the men's swimming Ivy League
2019: Thomas 'transitions'
2021: Thomas qualifies for the women's Ivy League first team, and wins all three out of Thomas' first three events, setting three new records
https://t.co/R7nNPbO57X

Pre 2018: Blair Hamilton (who like Lia Thomas and Emily Bridges is at least 6 foot tall) plays for Aberdeen University's men's football team 2018: Hamilton 'transitions'
2022: Hamilton is selected to play for the England Universities' women's team
https://t.co/whgbO39bz8

Pre 2019: Jamie Hunter played for 5 years in the men's Widnes Amateur snooker league 2020: Hunter 'transitions'
2021: Hunter qualifies for the Women's World Snooker Tour and makes it to the semi final of the English Women's Open
https://t.co/CPcmhp3RsI

Pre 2020: Sasha Jane Lowerson is an Australian longboard men's competitor
2020: Lowerson 'transitions', aged 42
2022: Lowerson wins the women's Western Australia longboard title, en route by beating competitors by almost three times their scores
https://t.co/MrsRS6YnrG

'Maxine Yates, a trans mountain bike racer, won the women's 19+ category in the National Series event in Scotland, and is ranked first in the female category. This is despite British Cycling ending the 'males can race in the female category' policy'
https://t.co/wjQNFCBQjj

September 2021: Lilly Chant 'transitions'

April 2022: Lilly Chant finishes 19th in a men's cycling event

June 2022: Lilly Chant finishes second in a women's cycling event. The winner is also male

https://t.co/oVik7N1Ifs

2020: Ricci Tres 'identifies' as a woman
2021: Ricci tries to qualify for the US Olympics women's skateboarding team but is not allowed to enter due to too high testosterone 2022: Ricci wins the New York City Women's Finals - the first women's event Ricci is allowed to compete in

Despite being male and 28, Riya Isha is allowed to compete in the women's under 26's All-India Inter University Athletics Championship.

Riya wins three events: the 3-km walk, the long jump and the hammer throw

https://t.co/YvswMF7kVs

2022: 'Anamika' wins an Indian High Court ruling to compete against women in judo on the basis that there isn't a third category for people who say they're transgender. Within days Anamika wins a women's 78 kilogram judo competition https://t.co/b5FSwkoATy

Victoria Monaghan was a New Zealand men's darts player with a national ranking, before retiring in 2018 with, seemingly, zero tournament wins.

2022: Monaghan is allowed to return - and compete in women's darts - and immediately wins the New Zealand Open

https://t.co/pil5fIr9JA

The first women's professional disc golf tournament in which the prize money was equal to the men's has been won by a man who 'identifies' as a woman. Natalie Ryan has been playing disc golf for three years and is already in the top 5 'women' in the world https://t.co/O25BwcxDgr

2017: Aged 31, Alba Palacios, having played two seasons in Spain's men's regional second division in his 20s, 'IDs' as a woman
2018: Palacios signs a semi-professional contract in Spain's women's football league 2022: Palacios is the league's top scorer
https://t.co/X76Hi51i7O

Pre 2017: Jackie Mautner grew up playing bike polo, and then started 'identifying' as a woman
2017: Jackie takes up women's competitive cycling 2022: Jackie wins the women's Pennsylvania's State Championship
https://t.co/WSpx5FbjFx

> Jacqueline Mautner took the women's cat 4/5 Pennsylvania state championship title at West Chester Cross Classic last weekend.
>
> (Remember, this never happens. And if it does happen, it hardly affects anyone.)#savewomenssports pic.twitter.com/46GOV0Sjay
>
> — \U0001f6b2 (@i_heart__bikes) November 11, 2022

2019: Austin Killips takes up competitive cycling and shortly afterwards reveals Killips now 'identifies' as a woman
2021: Killips becomes a full-time professional women's cyclist 2022: Killips wins the Northampton International Cyclocross tournament
https://t.co/DCvKBNZazG

> Today at Northampton International Cyclocross Day 1, Austin Killips took the win in the elite women's field#SaveWomensSports pic.twitter.com/qBztktJLp4
>
> — \U0001f6b2 (@i_heart__bikes) November 12, 2022

Women's skateboarding is becoming dominated by men who say they 'identify' as women. Violet Whyte, Dakota Cootes and Ricci Tres are just three names who have all won prize money in women's events in 2022 https://t.co/BW3HLkAZcY

> I\u2019ve competed against males in women\u2019s skateboarding contests three times (a different male each time), placed second two of those times, and lost thousands of dollars in prize money because of it. Trans rights activists don\u2019t want you to know I exist. #SaveWomensSports pic.twitter.com/lY9inv3XvL

— Taylor Silverman (@tmsilverman) November 13, 2022

2021: Aspen Hoffman finishes 72nd in the Seattle Academy’s cross-country running boys' league, and then 'identifies' as a girl 2022: Hoffman breaks the Seattle Academy’s school record in the girls’ 5000 metre category and ranks 1st in the league
https://t.co/ZpRrRfUKit

2013-15: Michael Johnson races in 78 cycling competitions, mostly for people aged over 40, winning four of them
2015-22: Michael 'transitions' to Tessa 2022: Tessa (aged 53) wins the women's cat 3/4 overall series in the Chicago Cyclocross Cup
https://t.co/EPgtfo3DDq

> Tessa Johnson of Comrade Cycles Racing took the overall series win in the 2022 Chicago Cyclocross Cup for cat 3/4 women
>
> (If you're curious about Tessa's results this season, you'll need to look under "Michael Johnson" on crossresults)#SaveWomensSports pic.twitter.com/9ACvcgFEEP
>
> — \U0001f6b2 (@i_heart__bikes) December 8, 2022

Tiffany Newell recently began 'identifying' as a woman.
Newell has broken the Canadian women's 5,000 metre indoor running record
https://t.co/49pTDUmIaP

> \u201cTiffany Newell\u201d new Canadian Record in Masters Women Indoor 5000m run for the age group 45-49.
>
> More than a stolen award from women athletes, this is a record that's been ratified because \u201cTiffany\u201d apparently has \u201cmet all the World Athletics requirements to compete as a woman\u201d pic.twitter.com/aCUCi7NPpr
>
> — Amy E. Sousa, MA Depth Psychology (@KnownHeretic) December 30, 2022

Marjorie Roome took up women's indoor rowing, and has won several world championships (sometimes as the sole competitor as all women have refused to compete) and broken two British records for different age categories. He also participates in men's events https://t.co/QcGQWboUHP

> Marjorie Roome is an extraordinary but real example of what happens to women's sport when men are allowed to compete in women's categories.
> Marjorie is a man who says he 'identifies' as a woman. He took up indoor rowing and has been allowed to compete in women's championships 1/4 pic.twitter.com/foZI32LWBU
>
> — ripx4nutmeg (@ripx4nutmeg) January 1, 2023

Male Anne Andres took up women's powerlifting in 2019 and quickly became Alberta's bench record holder, and in 2023 will compete in the CPU National Championships. He has posted videos asking why women are so weak when it comes to powerlifting https://t.co/tPBwwQKXwF

rawrlifts •••

Follow Message

Anne Andres
Alberta powerlifting record holder for bench at 120kg (253lb) in 84+.
Aiming for deadlift and 600 world record!
Yes I'm a transwoman, get over it.

| 971 | 388 | 305 |
| --- | --- | --- |
| posts | followers | following |

\U0001f3cb\ufe0fTrans identifying male, Anne Andres is Alberta Canada's women's powerlifting record holder in bench
\U0001f6a8competes next month in women's category at the 2023 CPU National Championships

\U0001f6a9Recognizes no understanding of upper body strength differences btw males & females
\U0001f9f5 pic.twitter.com/DYEyEWZTLr

— ICONS Women (@icons_women) January 4, 2023

Emma Farnan played men's rugby at university and nearly made it as a professional, but failed to do so. Aged 21, he announced he was a woman and took up women's rugby within two years. Aged 27, he's now a leading player in a professional women's league
https://t.co/seM3CODuPv

Emma Farnan, a transgender women who is a professional rugby player with @prsevens, said she she feels like a shell of the athlete she used to be after transitioning.https://t.co/0NBhVBYRWJ pic.twitter.com/geShSMFqO1

— Good Morning America (@GMA) January 18, 2023

Having competed as a men's cross country runner for the University of Montana for nearly three years, June Eastwood announced he was a woman and just a few months later comfortably won the women's one mile Big Sky Conference Championship https://t.co/dJciJsmKIm

Sometimes an argument is superfluous. Sometimes you just need to watch.
If you can watch this video - take the time, out of respect - and not see a problem, there isn't any amount number of words that can work.

However, I have 8.5k coming tomorrowhttps://t.co/FFWb75FhyY

— Jon Pike (@runthinkwrite) January 23, 2023