Saw @BenjaminPDixon today on the Majority Report spreading a very important, critical message.

It will require moderate and progressive Christians to fight against, invalidate, and destroy Christian Nationalism.

I talk w/ my family especially my parents (Christian fascists), but since I'm an atheist, my words are of the devil to them. They think that even though I mean well, that Satan is using me to deceive them, to test them.

It has to be other Christians who fight against this.
