1) On Trump visit to border: While I do not have any intel on what will happen when Trump goes to the border, I also must stress that no one should go to this. The fact that @CBP & @USBPChief are devoted to Trump & many agents are Q says enough. I fully expect them to back him.

2) I fully expect this border trip to be a shit show. I fully expect violence and brutality. Just like Jan 6th, they will try and say it was the left. That is why you should not go. Do not give them an excuse to blame others.

3) To date, @USBPChief has not denounced the coup or the killing of a Capitol Police officer. This says they are on once again willing to violate their oaths and side with Trump. So, yes I believe something is going to happen, but no, I have nothing specific to tell you.
