Lady Gaga is going to sing the anthem. Fucking hell.

Followed by a black lesbian signing the pledge, this is perfect.

aaaaaaaaand now Kamala is vice president officially.

ha ha ha, Jesus, now Jennifer Lopez? It's such a mockery of a once great nation.

Biden is officially President.

Holy shit, he's slurring through his gay speech

Biden just said he will defeat "white supremacism" and "domestic terrorism." Strap in boys. You're not just deplorable anymore.

Now he's promising to deliver "racial justice."

Right after declaring war on half the country, he's calling for the worn out "unity."
