2. A filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) shows that UBS Securities LLC arranged a private placement of $400 million with Staple Street Capital III, L.P. on October 8, 2020.

Staple Street Capital, a private equity firm located in New York, purchased

3. Dominion Voting systems on July 17, 2018, for an undisclosed amount.

The securities firm that arranged the transaction, UBS Securities LLC, is a division of UBS Americas Inc, which ultimately falls under UBS Group AG, a company listed on the SIX Swiss stock exchange.

4. Three of four board members of UBS Securities LLC are Chinese according to Bloomberg, at least one of whom appears to reside in Hong Kong.

One of them is Ye Xiang, a Chinese national who also served as a board member of the Beijing-based UBS subsidiary.

5. This facilitator of the deal is Chinese vice premier Wang Qishan, who is deemed the most finance-savvy Communist official. He was the mayor of Beijing in 2006 when he met with UBS’s then-chairman Marcel Ospel.

■ Sidney Powell on a Newsmax interview, about timing:

6. "Well actually with the fraud case, December 8th, the deadline doesn't comply. We have at least until December 14th. We might file more suits but a court in Michigan and Wisconsin today just gave us a great order recognizing that. These are not pure election contest we

7. are fighting, these are massive fraud suits that can set aside the results of the election due to this fraud at any time."

■ The Amistad Project, via TET, about artificial deadlines of Dec. 8th and 14th:

The Amistad Project has also filed litigation in several key swing

8. states, arguing that illegal actions on the part of state and local officials led to more than 1.2 million potentially fraudulent ballots. "Through rigorous investigations supporting our litigation, we demonstrate that state and local officials brazenly violated election

9. laws in several swing states in order to advance a partisan political agenda," said Phill Kline, director of The Amistad Project, in a statement. "As a result, it is impossible for those states to determine their presidential electors in line with the arbitrary deadline set

10. forth via federal statute in 1948, and thus, the only deadline that matters is Jan. 20, 2021."
