Twitter Thread by braingarbage

braingarbage
@braingarbage

All filings, including case initiating documents, may be submitted as PDF attachments to an e-mail addressed to prosefilings@ord.uscourts.gov. Documents e-mailed to other court email addresses will not be accepted for filing and will receive no response.

Failure to use the correct e-mail address may result in revocation or restriction of e-mail filing privileges.

• All filings must include a case caption page that complies with Local Rule 10.
• The filing must be signed with s/ [filer's name] or bear a scanned handwritten signature.
• The e-mail must contain the party's name, address, and phone number.

For existing cases, the e-mail's subject line must state: Pro Se Filing [Insert Your Case Number]. For new cases, the e-mail's subject line must state: Pro Se Filing in New Case.

• E-mails and filings that do not comply with these requirements will not be filed, and the Court will request a revision that complies with this Order.

https://t.co/GNAtTqB2ko

> Oregon 2020-8 Amended in Re Pro Se Filing by E-Mail in Response to COVID-19 https://t.co/k6txaugqPG
>
> — braingarbage (@braingarbage) December 5, 2020