Twitter Thread by Baba97

Baba97
@Baba9773

1) God bless the State of Texas and @KenPaxtonTX What he has just done gives us every chance to save our Republic and our country.

Keep in mind that there are only a few instances where a party can file a direct lawsuit with the U.S. Supreme Court, a state claiming harm by

2) another state is one of those instances.

https://t.co/xvXGDdgDYh

Texas Attorney General @KenPaxtonTX has filed a lawsuit with the Supreme Court seeking and emergency injunction against Michigan, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Georgia “from taking action to

> The ONLY court that can hear the #TexasLawSuit is the Supreme Court of the United States. When a case is between two or more states, the Supreme Court holds both original and exclusive jurisdiction, and no lower court may hear such cases. SCOTUS does not have discretion to ignore
>
> — Robert Barnes (@Barnes_Law) December 8, 2020

3) certify presidential electors or to have such electors take any official action including without limitation participating in the electoral college.”

@KenPaxtonTX argues that arbitrary changes made by the state’s governors, secretaries of states and election supervisors were

4) “inconsistent with relevant state laws and were made by non-legislative entities, without any consent by the state legislatures. The acts of these officials thus directly violated the Constitution.”

The lawsuit states: “these non-legislative changes … facilitated the casting

5) and counting of ballots in violation of state law, which, in turn, violated the Electors Clause of Article II, Section 1, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution.” […] “By these unlawful acts, the Defendant States have not only tainted the integrity of their own citizens vote, but

6) their actions have also debased the votes of citizens in Plaintiff State and other States that remained loyal to the Constitution."

@KenPaxtonTX notes the intent of the states may have been changes in good faith, due to COVID-19 mitigation efforts; however, the end result of

7) the changes is in direct violation to the Constitution and therefore creates the harm.

"Certain officials in the Defendant States presented the pandemic as the justification for ignoring state laws regarding absentee and mail-in voting." […] "The Defendant States flooded

8) their citizenry with tens of millions of ballot applications and ballots in derogation of statutory controls as to how they are lawfully received, evaluated, and counted. Whether well intentioned or not, these unconstitutional acts had the same uniform effect they made the

9) 2020 election less secure in the Defendant States."

This is absolutely brilliant!

Here is an excellent thread by @RoscoeBDavis1 explaining what this entails and what the outcome will be once 5 justices rule in favor of the injunction.

https://t.co/rfd29c7M8N

> Thread by @RoscoeBDavis1: The end around case has been put together by TX AG Ken Paxton suing GA, MI, WI, and PA at SCOTUS. Bringing this case across multiple jurisdictions gives it a straight lane to...\u2026 https://t.co/PwCK0Yy8Og
>
> This thread is the Christmas gift to our country
>
> — Baba97 (@Baba9773) December 9, 2020

10) This is for all the marbles! This determines whether we are a country of laws or not. Whether our Constitution lives on or dies.

https://t.co/wzHWh8XfsS

> The lawsuit filed by Texas against other states as a matter of original jurisdiction at the Supreme Court is a critical case, aiming to defend the Constitution against violations of the law by other states and protect the integrity of our elections. https://t.co/715mzHfv5z
>
> — Jay Sekulow (@JaySekulow) December 8, 2020

11) Our President absolutely understands the magnitude of this case! Look what he retweeted:

https://t.co/3MazIOWIf5

> They got caught because we were leading by so much more than they ever thought possible. Late night ballot \u201cdumps\u201d went crazy! https://t.co/gPpVWUUs91
>
> — Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 8, 2020

12) God bless the AG of Arkansas as well as the other 5 AGs that joined AG @KenPaxtonTX

https://t.co/IzbTJoAFCe

The MSM, Democrats, Leftists, Never Trumpers, RINOS etc. are continuing to try and gaslight the country. They can take their safe harbor deadline and wipe their

> After reviewing the motion filed by Texas in the U.S. Supreme Court, I have determined that I will support the motion in all legally appropriate manners. The integrity of our elections is a critical part of our nation and it must be upheld. https://t.co/NesQz2wVV9 pic.twitter.com/imSokVlq79
>
> — Leslie Rutledge (@AGRutledge) December 8, 2020