Twitter Thread by Pulp Librarian

Pulp Librarian

@PulpLibrarian

Which book took you the longest time to actually finish reading?

For me: Underworld. 17 years from buying it to actually getting around to reading it, and maybe 19 months on and off to make myself read it until the end.

Still, ticked it off the list $\boldsymbol{\sim}$

Don Delillo DOIDE

Coming Up For Air was torture. It's nature's punishment for autodidacts.

GEORGE ORWELL'S $\frac{A V O N}{35 c}$ GREAT NOVEL OF ONE MAN'S TEMPTATION

