spread across the country but Calcutta was the center of his business and that was one of the reasons why her education was done in Calcutta. During that period of time, she had learned quite a few languages along with Bengali, Hindi, English.

4/21
Her father got her married to a CID Inspector "Shrikant Jairanjan Das" in British India but they were two different individuals, Neera Arya was a true nationalist but her husband was a true British servant. She was highly motivated & she had an urge of getting us freedom..

little skin of my hand & I ignored but when he started cutting off the shackles from my legs with the help of a hammer he hit my bones 2-3 times instead of the shackles. It was so painful that I grieved & said; "are you blind that you're hitting my legs"? then he replied,

I can even hit on your heart as well, what can you do about it?

I knew that I was a slave & I can't do anything but still I was so angry that I spitted on him & said: "learn to respect women". At that time there was a Jailer as well who was watching all of these and he..

said we can let u go if you tell us where's NSCB? So, I replied, he died in a plane crash & d entire world knows about it.

The Jailer replied, u're lying & he's still alive
So I replied yes, he's alive
Then Jailer asked where's he then?
I replied, in my mind & in my heart!

16/21
The jailer got furious and said, “Then we will remove Netaji from your heart”. The jailer touched me inappropriately & tore my cloth apart in my chest area and indicated the blacksmith. The blacksmith immediately took a breast ripper & started pressing my right breast to..

17/21
cut it off. Though there was no edge in it but it had crossed all the limits of pain & in the meanwhile, the jailer holds my neck & said if I ever argue with anyone then he will take off both my balloons out of my chest.

The jailer also hit me with a tweezer that was..

lying there & said be thankful to our Queen Victoria that this breast ripper was not heated or else your breast would've been chopped off your chest.

There were many such brave stories of our "Veer Yodhas" who contributed to this country in giving us freedom but..

unfortunately, they never got recognition in our textbooks instead, murderers & rapists like Mughals are glorified & made prominent all across this country.

Such warriors never got the respect which they really deserved, Neera Arya spent her last days of her life selling..

flowers and she lived in a small cottage in Falaknuma, Hyderabad. But not only that her cottage was also demolished by the Govt as it was constructed on a Govt land.

She left the world on 26 July 1998 but unfortunately, she still never got any recognition and/or the honor she really deserved to have.

Share the story as much as you can so everyone can know about this brave Hindu warrior.■
