A map of undivided Punjab. The slogan says we will fight for our rights, our land

A trolley with wood for warmth and hearth

The songs are about their struggle and their resolve to protect their land and livelihood

Phone charging for farmers. Solar company's contribution

Milk supply tractor

Free water supply

One of many little kitchens

There's plenty of food. They've stocked up and people are giving more. Some locals living by the highway have also opened their doors to them.

Several believe that the strict lockdown was imposed only to pass these laws undemocratically

Support is coming from far and wide. A small group of teachers from private schools march to the border in support

A bunch of old men preparing aloo pakodas. Also, slogans: down with the govt, long live farmer-labour unity
