The very first section of Robson's allegations is an example of how when he realizes a certain true part of his story does not support his goals he simple changes it to a lie.

He and Joy repeatedly stated under oath that Target run the 1987 dance contest.

Wade 2005 testimony

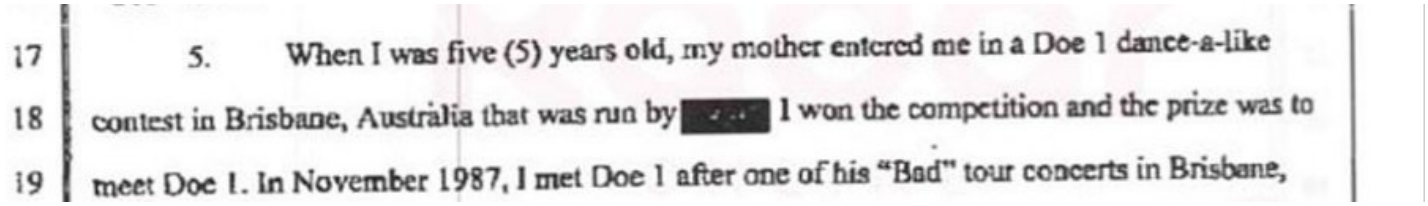

8 A. I met him first when I was five years old.
9 I think it was '87. And Michael was touring, he was 10 doing the "Bad" tour. And I was imitating him as a 11 dancer at that point. And he was holding these -- 12 it was in connection with Target or something like
13 that, holding these dance, like, contests all around
14 wherever he traveled. So I entered one of the dance
15 contests and ended up winning it, went on to the 16 finals and won that, and then the prize was to meet
17 Michael.

Joy 2016 deposition

14 Q Where was the dance contest held?
15 A In a Target store.
16 Q In a Target?
17 A Yeah. It was sponsored by Target, Pepsi and 18 CBS Records.

But in this second amended complaint the meet-and-greet is still described as nothing special. He only says it went well. He is not making any allegations regarding that or the second meeting they had in the hotel.

Wade Sept 2016 fourth amended complaint

after he hired Finaldi and Manly suddenly those two meetings were sexual grooming mechanism orchestrated by MJJ Prod. and MJJ Ventures even though Ventures did not even exist yet.

WTF?

11. In November 1987, when Plaintiff was five (5) years old, he entered a dance-a-like competition run by MJJ PRODUCTIONS in conjunction with MICHAEL JACKSON's music tour in Australia. Plaintiff won the competition, and the prize was a meet-and-greet with MICHAEL JACKSON following one of his concerts. The meet-and-greet went well, and MICHAEL JACKSON invited Plaintiff to dance on stage with him at a concert a few nights later. Plaintiff and his mother also spent a few hours visiting with MICHAEL JACKSON in his hotel suite the next day. Plaintiff alleges these "meet and greets" were purposely orchestrated by MJJ PRODUCTIONS and MJJ VENTURES as a sexual grooming mechanism to acquire minor sexual abuse victims for MICHAEL JACKSON, disguised as charitable events for minors.

By the time they shot Leaving Neverland he and his mother somehow "forgot" that these meetings were "sexual grooming mechanism" and both cheerfully talked about the experience they had in 1987.

So 4 years after he first accused him suddenly he remembered that those two meetings were grooming even though MJ didn't even give them his phone number and in fact ignored their letters for two years and if it had been up to him he would have never met Wade again

Instead it was his mother who wanted the second meeting and who two yeas later called around to desperately find a way to contact him. Joy even mocked how MJ did NOT give them any contact info

So MJ's idea of procuring kids was to use his company to run a dance contest, have a short meeting with the future victim and then.....ignore him for years and just hope that they will somehow find a phone number they can use to contact him again.

The most sophisticated child procurement organization the world has ever known, indeed.
