Unofficial roll call of senators endorsing removal: (thread)

1. Blumenthal <https://t.co/aVlevdnFVV>

Yesterday's insurrection was instigated & incited by President Trump. He is unfit to hold office for even one day longer.

The 25th Amendment should be invoked &, if the VP & Cabinet refuse to act, Senate Republicans must join the House to impeach & remove Trump.

— Richard Blumenthal (@SenBlumenthal) January 7, 2021

2. Booker

<https://t.co/lSaHJIMJ2B>

Donald Trump has shown he is a direct threat to the safety and security of Americans and the integrity of our democracy. The Vice President & Cabinet should immediately invoke the 25th Amendment to remove the President from office.

— Cory Booker (@CoryBooker) January 7, 2021

3. Brown

President Trump must be removed from office for inciting yesterday's violent insurrection.

I am calling on the cabinet and vice president to immediately invoke the 25th Amendment. pic.twitter.com/tilP7y24jk

4. Casey

<https://t.co/0VLcwxARzA>

I call on Vice President Pence to invoke the 25th Amendment and begin the process of removing the powers of the presidency from Donald Trump. This is the quickest way to protect our domestic and national security.

5. Coons

President Trump has abandoned his post. He does not deserve to be president any longer, and he poses a real and present threat to the future of our democracy. pic.twitter.com/TB12IOooMf

6. Durbin

<https://t.co/kSBCVvFKMp>

Trump's incitement to violence & mob action yesterday is indisputable. New York Times' headline says it all: "Trump Incites Mob"

The VP should immediately invoke the 25th Amendment. If the VP & Cabinet refuse to do their duty, Congress should reconvene to impeach the President.

— Senator Dick Durbin (@SenatorDurbin) January 7, 2021

7. Hirono

<https://t.co/Ox6OzYcAAu>

Rather than taking the easy resign route, @VP Pence and the Trump cabinet should invoke the 25th amendment to save our country from this dangerous president.

— Senator Mazie Hirono (@maziehirono) January 7, 2021

8. Kaine

<https://t.co/X7gSDwlniW>

The sun is up on a new day. But there must be accountability for yesterday:

The Cabinet should invoke the 25th Amendment against Trump. If he wants to challenge, Congress should vote him out.

Congress should inform Trump that he is not welcome at the inauguration.

9. Leahy

<https://t.co/JsWnRYoJ9u>

It\u2019s painfully clear that President Trump remains an ongoing and immediate threat to our constitutional republic. He should either immediately resign or the Vice President should invoke the 25th Amendment. Absent that, I support Congress reconvening to impeach the President.

— Sen. Patrick Leahy (@SenatorLeahy) January 7, 2021

10. Markey

<https://t.co/3zUyxt9Vdj>

The Vice President and the Cabinet must invoke the 25th Amendment and end Donald Trump's seditious and authoritarian presidency today.

— Ed Markey (@EdMarkey) January 7, 2021

11. Merkley

<https://t.co/N329A38LKX>

Trump is absolutely unfit and should be removed from office. If we can do it by Jan 20 by impeachment, I am all for it. The cabinet and VP can and should invoke the 25th Amendment TODAY. And there should be criminal investigations and prosecutions. Justice demands accountability.

— Senator Jeff Merkley (@SenJeffMerkley) January 7, 2021

12. Murray

<https://t.co/AHz4ca3UkO>

As history watches, I urge Vice President Pence and the President\u2019s Cabinet to put country before party and invoke the 25th Amendment to immediately remove Trump from office. My full statement here: <https://t.co/ZF1bIKBTQi>

14. Sanders

<https://t.co/XGsDPkpTo7>

A number of Administration officials are resigning in protest to Trump\u2019s horrific acts of sedition yesterday. Not good enough! The Vice President and cabinet members must invoke the 25th amendment NOW and remove Trump from office before he incites more violence and chaos.

— Bernie Sanders (@BernieSanders) January 7, 2021

15. Schatz

<https://t.co/LMF2HFu0GM>

Trump is a danger to democracy itself. I took an oath to defend the Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic. We must both initiate impeachment proceedings in the House and invoke the 25th Amendment. Our vigilance must increase, not wane, in the final days.

— Brian Schatz (@brianschatz) January 7, 2021

17. Schumer

<https://t.co/pXbkYTbOVk>

The quickest and most effective way it can be done today to remove this president from office would be for the Vice President to immediately invoke the 25th amendment.

If the Vice President and the Cabinet refuse to stand up, Congress must reconvene to impeach President Trump.

— Chuck Schumer (@SenSchumer) January 7, 2021

18. Van Hollen

<https://t.co/TIMZwYXdDP>

President Trump instigated yesterday's seditious attack on our democracy and must be removed from office. Each day he remains in the White House is a threat to our country. VP Pence must invoke the 25th amendment. If he and the Cabinet won't act, Congress should move to impeach.

— Senator Chris Van Hollen (@ChrisVanHollen) January 7, 2021

19. Warner

<https://t.co/hbJPryvK14>

This president is unfit to remain in office for the next 2 weeks. Every minute he's in power, he continues to be a threat to our security. It's time for the 25th Amendment.

— Mark Warner (@MarkWarner) January 7, 2021

20. Warren

<https://t.co/yuqO9u6h78>

I 100% agree. <https://t.co/rbLHLsNZYG>

— Elizabeth Warren (@SenWarren) January 7, 2021

21. Whitehouse

<https://t.co/hh7qlOMAeg>

President Trump incited an attempted insurrection.

He\u2019s unfit.

He ought to go, by resignation, the 25th Amendment, or impeachment.

— Sheldon Whitehouse (@SenWhitehouse) January 7, 2021

22. Wyden

<https://t.co/lV3eumHDKH>

As I said last night, Donald Trump is a clear and present danger to our democracy. His Cabinet must use the 25th amendment to act. And if Mike Pence and Trump\u2019s \u201csee-no-evil\u201d Cabinet don\u2019t have the stomach to do their duty, Congress should re-convene to impeach this dangerous man.
