@bisouvante

Y’all know poc people outside of America exits and they’re suffering right?

They suffer and struggle every day, barely having food or safety bc of their politicians. Getting dragged into war, hearing bombs every day and they risk everything by merely breathing. They are poc people who haven’t gotten the privilege to live a decent life, they need help the Canadian government is currently trying to build a pipeline on stolen indigenous land.

I’ll link some threads https://t.co/ODxrRhREtC

not to mention poison communities with the inevitability of oil spills into clean water sources.
