There is evidence that will hopefully be shown that both GOP megadonors and politicians had an active role in the election fraud that occurred last month & is still ongoing.

Take a moment to realize just how insufferably stupid they have to be to make that choice.

By -

...doing so, they're telling the world that they are perfectly happy helping to put a CCP puppet in the office of the POTUS.

These silly bastards think they'll be oligarchs or allowed to stay in office.

Which proves they don't know too much about modern leftists or the CCP...

...There is a lot of top-dollar real estate bought at very overpriced values in SoCal bc CCP party members & Chinese oligarchs will do anything to get any money they can out of China and into assets in the US that the CCP can't take.

Why would they be willing to lose large-

...sums of money just to get their cash out of China?

Because just like Russia, even if you're an oligarch you can fall from grace in an instant, get locked up for the rest of your life or executed and have every penny taken from you at the drop of a hat, merely for falling out-

...of favor.

Now think about the traitorous GOP politicians and domestic oligarchs who think they're safe...

Do they really think the CCP puppet Dementia Beijing Biden's handlers will allow someone to stay in power who's already proven themselves to be a traitor? -

...nobody likes traitors, even if their lack of spine & morals helps take down an enemy, you know they can never be trusted.

Enter today's modern leftists, the radical wing who will have a hand up the backside of the puppet.

Do they seem like the types who will let a GOP-

...politician stay in office just because they sold out the country and their party?

How long until the lunatic fringe, who's already at the point of turning on each other, decides that they need to go because of their past conservative transgressions?

How -

...long until, despite their treason, the lunatic left begins hurling every "-ist" slur their way?

Scum like Kemp think that because a Biden presidency would ensure that Dominion & Smartmatic or companies like them will ensure "the fix is in" on every future US election-

...that it means they'll be able to stay in office as long as they like, since they paid "the toll" with their treason.

But how long until the loonies & puppet masters decide to drop the charade and just fix the votes to ensure one party rule across the US just as CA has done?-

...As described earlier, their money isn't safe as long as the CCP is controlling things.

And we know it's only a matter of time before the lunatic leftists turn their gnashing machine on anyone who has an R after their name in politics.

These people truly are stupid.
