The Signals Are Accelerating And Strengthening

I consider the tweet below the most important yet. We'll immediately discuss why below. After that there are two documents and an interview to work on. Clarity is arising, pointing the way.

> Peter Navarro releases 36-page report alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient' to swing victory to Trump https://t.co/D8KrMHnFdK. A great report by Peter. Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election. Big protest in D.C. on January 6th. Be there, will be wild!

2) I was about to laugh about the dispute warning, but then realized that this very act on Twitter's part is that grain of sand inside which you can see the entire world of what we face today. How dare they? How dare you Twitter? Who, WHAT do you think you are?

3) We have to consider the logic. Stave Navarro releases a report. It is published at Bannon's War Room. In these matters, tone is everything. It might have been published anywhere but the President, I mean Navarro, chose to publish with Steve.

https://t.co/AKot2A8juc

4) That is a signal. Why Steve? Beyond the clear statement of unity - Steve is a full member of the strategic team working to save our nation - there is a far deeper, more important reason. Steve's main portfolio item is China. Choosing him speaks them as much as us. Maybe more.

5) Bullies are cowards. One of the greatest means of PREVENTING war is the bold, direct, aggressive communication of readiness. You want a piece of this? Come get it...expletives deleted. There's always the other hand. War may be coming.

6) The place is what? Bannon's WAR ROOM. In our #SunTzuForMAGA work, we have established that for the ancient Chinese, the war planning room was always placed in a Temple. Going to the Temple is a synonym for war planning. We call it the War Room. Steve's name SHOUTS Sun Tzu.

7) Drop it down again. Using this means, Trump is TELEGRAPHING to the Chinese...WE ARE ONTO YOU. We know you're trying to Sun Tzu us into surrender. But buddy, you're not as masterful with Sun Tzu as you think you are. We see what you're doing, and we're prepared.

8) And what is the name of this report?

THE IMMACULATE DECEPTION:
Six Key Dimensions of Election Irregularities

Later this morning, we'll come back and study this report together. Right now what is the signal in that name? It of course summons the term "Immaculate Conception."

9) The Immaculate Conception is of course the basis of the Christian belief that Jesus was both a man, and the Son of God. It is the core belief of Christianity, and it is celebrated on Christmas. How often does Trump talk about the importance of saying Merry Christmas?

10) Here we are in the height of the 2020 Christmas season, and Trump entitles his work with an absolutely crystal clear reference to this season. He is grounding this report under the very Will of God our nation was founded upon.

11) Drop down a step. Our nation is the only nation in the history of the world founded upon ideas, a philosophy, concepts, conceptions, and the most immaculate conceptions ever brought forth onto the field of men governing men. WE are also the immaculate conception.

12) But this election has been a deception. This election has been Satan's playground. Where God immaculately impregnated the virgin Mary, Satan has immaculately impregnated this election. It is Satan's child, by which I simply mean, it is China's evil child.

13) And where was this extraordinary documented made accessible to the public? The Washington Examiner. More specifically, it is in the The Conservative Source, the Examiner's Magazine. I never knew this magazine existed before. How about that?

https://t.co/3W52ZJZE1Z

14) And here's the title of the magazine's story:

Peter Navarro releases 36-page report alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient' to swing victory to Trump

Now that, my friends, is a signal. Not only is Trump telling us he will NOT concede, he's claiming victory.

15) I have read the story in full. It is excellent. It is well-written and copiously documented. The links alone are invaluable. If you have the time, it would make for a wonderful research project. You read it and click on each link. Of those, you decide what to read as well.

16) Sadly, we will not have time to do that together. But if you choose to do so, you will be glad you did. What's more, if you go the next step of sharing, compose your own thread and hit me. Hoping I see it, I'll forward your work to all my followers with gratitude.

17) Now Trump's tweet: "Peter Navarro releases 36-page report alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient' to swing victory to Trump. A great report by Peter. Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election. Big protest in D.C. on January 6th. Be there, will be wild!"

18) Have you notice many people saying, "the election isn't over?" I have, and I've been torn by the logic. My heart instantly shouts, yes it is, we won by a landslide. I've mediated about this, and I'm wrong. We did win by a landslide at the vote.

19) But due to the Immaculate Deception, we did NOT win the election itself yet. So, I only now understand that winning at the vote does NOT = winning the election. It breaks my heart, and boom, there goes another beloved naivete down the drain.

20) That is what I hear Trump telling us about January 6, 2021. This part is every bit as important as voting in the first place. We've discussed this many times before. So sadly, I will be an absentee rallier. I apologize.

21) Let me talk for a moment about a couple of my friends who will be involved in organizing 50 state capital rallies that day, @PROUDPATRIOT45 and @HelpStopHate. These two patriots have given their all to empower everyone who can to attend, locally.

22) Now Trump's points:

1) Peter Navarro releases 36-page report
2) Alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient'
3) To swing victory to Trump
4) Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election
5) Big protest in D.C. on January 6th
7) Be there, will be wild!

23) The incoming responses have been so many, so loud, and so wonderful, we have to take a theological break here and discuss a technical point of definition. First, I'll share my own, what I was taught and its logic. Then, we'll look to the other side.

24) I was taught as a boy that Mary was a virgin, but one who became pregnant, impregnated immaculately by God. Thus, the immaculate conception was, I was taught, what occurred when Virgin Mary was impregnated, but not by man, by God. She remained a virgin.

25) As I always share, I adore the religion I was taught as a boy, but have not remained within the faith in manhood. I am not a believer. I am a respecter, and an interpreter. I do so with joy, happiness, and great comfort. I also serve and support others' faiths.

26) My many Catholic friends have been righteously sounding off! The immaculate conception, they tell me, was Mary's. She was born without sin, NOT under the burden of original sin. I confess, I never knew that before this morning. New information!

27) Coming back to today's political world, however, I don't see how anyone can dispute that The Immaculate Deception contains a bold signal about Christmas 2020. So, I have this compromise to offer. Let us forebear any further theological debate about definitions. Rather...

28) Rather, let us hold to what cannot be disputed. The Immaculate Deception is obviously the election fraud, its theft without the hand of its "father" immediately present. We must look to discover who its father is. But I will state clearly the paternity again in a moment.

29) The Evil Father of 2020's Immaculate Deception is China. Its immaculate bride/harem is the evil combination of MSM, the Democrats, the corrupted Judiciary, the corrupted DOJ and team, the corrupted Intel community, and the blinded Americans who simply do not see or know.

30) The Evil Child of this Immaculate Deception is the one falsely called President Elect Biden. His manger is the innovatively named Office of the President Elect. His evilly immaculate conception was a campaign run without touching the people, from his basement in hell.

31) It was a great joy to take an analogical excursion! Let us now return to our leader's guidance, point by point. Let's crunch up 1, 2, & 3.

1) Peter Navarro releases 36-page report
2) Alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient'
3) To swing victory to Trump

32) Election fraud more than sufficient to swing victory to Trump.

Now THAT is guidance.

Letting go of landslide - which it was - victory is all that matters. Trump has 100% claimed victory.

That matters.

33) In all the ins and outs, twists and turns of American history, nothing has ever happened like this before. Voter fraud stole the 2020 election. Say it with me now...

Voter Fraud Stole The 2020 Election

We won. Our victory was stolen.

This is new territory.

34) In the long work we have yet in front of us today, we'll discover that this was actually FAR MORE than merely voter fraud. We are in a Cyberwar, now. We have never been in a Cyberwar before. Cyberwarfare has been used against us, and we're pretty good at it too.

35) But that a war has been declared over the earth, and its dark forces are led by China, against the goodness of America...that is new. We are in a war, a Cyberwar. But like I said, we'll come back to that. Voter fraud is but a skirmish in that greater war. Wow.

36) What President Trump tells us though is that we have in hand, in Peter's report, the clear evidence that voter fraud stole this election and we have the data to prove it. This was a stolen election.

Take that in.

This was a stolen election.

You need to know.

37) Here's the pivot point:

4) Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election

Crunch it all up. Analyse this or that. The bottom line is that in this case, an election is a statistical thing. We have to talk about that.

38) Over a hundred things, your count and my count can be trued. We'll both agree after a bit of count and recount. True of 1,000. By the time we get to 10,000 things we're counting, we're ready to turn to statistics. Here are some examples.

39) How much does 100 single dollar bills weigh? Assuming we have millions of dollar bills, we don't count them one by one. We weigh them. We accept the sum of their weight with a conversion number to equal their worth. That's statistics.

40) Or, we use those lovely dollar counting machines we see in the movies. Okay. Put the same stack through two different times, will you get the same answer twice? Sure, sometimes. Sometimes not. As the numbers grow larger, we will average the two counts. Statistics.

41) A truck arrives in the middle of the night with 500,000 ballots, 98.6% of which are for Joe Biden. This is NOT statistically possible. It would be like a lead ball jumping up and floating in front of your face. Not possible. Statistics, in voting, is a science.

42) There can be no clearer statement, no stronger guidance, than that by the laws of statistics we simply did not, could not have lost the 2020 Election. Fact is, we didn't. We won by a landslide. It is this landslide they MUST steal. So what do we do?

43) Silly me, I skipped six:

1) Peter Navarro releases 36-page report
2) Alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient'
3) To swing victory to Trump
4) Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election
5) Big protest in D.C. on January 6th

7) Be there, will be wild!

44) Corrected numbering:

1) Peter Navarro releases 36-page report
2) Alleging election fraud 'more than sufficient'
3) To swing victory to Trump
4) Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election
5) Big protest in D.C. on January 6th
6) Be there, will be wild!

45) Here is our true answer.

PROTEST

We must protest this attempted theft. And on that note:

5) Big protest in D.C. on January 6th

President Trump has sent out a clear signal. The protest in D.C. on January 6 is his command to us. Be there, or be square. But his words are...

46) Trump tells us:

6) Be there, will be wild!

Is this the voice of man giving up? Does this signal surrender in any possible way? Not a chance. This election IS NOT OVER.

47) I imagine not a single square foot of available space unfilled by a patriot supporting President Trump. I imagine those who are able coming with all their passion, fury, commitment, and patriotism to adhere to Trump's guidance. It will be wild.

48) Two more documents and an interview yet remain. Here is the first of those documents. My great friend @cancerousToejam send it to me. If you'd like to read it now, here's the link. After a break, this is where we'll pick up again.
