They pleaded "not guilty" to the charges when they were read to them.

Prosecution counsel, I. Agwu, adopted the subsisting evidence on record, praying the court that "we shall not be calling any other witness or any other prosecution witness who earlier testified before this court".

Defense counsel, Professor Amuda Kaneke, SAN, prayed that the bail granted the defendants be maintained.

He also prayed the court for an adjournment to enable him study the amended charge and further proceed with his defense.

The prayers were not opposed by the prosecution.

Justice Turaki granted that the defendants continue in their existing bail and adjourned the matter till March 15, 16 and 17, 2021 for continuation of trial.
