“What authority does POTUS have specifically over the Marines?”

“only branch of service that falls directly under exec command”

“Nati Sec Act of 1947, amended in 1952, specifies the duties of the USMC to include: ‘perform such other duties as the president may direct.’”

This is the QProof. Go back

So Israel sent someone to tell us what’s going to happen here?

This is a very detailed rundown/analysis of the situation, posted today. It seems beyond belief that we would do nothing in response to fraud, hack attack reaching up to the top.

One thing that occurred to me was that the hack attack was “magically” discovered after @POTUS threatened to veto the China-friendly NDAA. The hackers had been active since spring. Funny how stock gets dumped and it’s a crisis now.

Also it is suspicious that everyone is yelling “Russia” not “China” and refusing altogether to ask “who left the door open?”

This was posted today: “the die has been cast”

We know a meeting with A/SD Miller was set for 3:30 today with @POTUS

A lot is happening very quickly. We have been waiting to see what happens with the 2018 EO.

So far today this happened. https://t.co/UZmThM0706

The fact is that @POTUS would have signed the bipartisan legislation into law anyway, and its impact will be lessened by a time window. But the optic is powerful; we won't be cowed.

https://t.co/V0v9aYUn7E

Why is the optic important? Because whoever did the hack and whoever made it public wanted to show that they could cause critical damage.

The SolarWinds "Sunburst" hack is a stinger both in terms of the spying it allowed and the lateral "crawling" it afforded the invader.

China literally never stops spying. https://t.co/qH8ewKpmc1

China had money in Dominion, as well as parts.

Maricopa County won't give up the machines for review.

So @POTUS is possibly sending in the Marines. https://t.co/UBpFR4JIPR

Also today a weird TV ceremonial vaccination of Pelosi and Pence, which made me wonder what the underlying meaning was. Like was it a humiliation ritual? https://t.co/joepc8zhvb
