Boomers have permanently crippled /pol/.
It's threads on the RV are all taken over by boomer Q posting and babies first conspiracy posts.

If you look at it as a whole, there is no longer an actual effort to connect anything at all from any real information. Instead it's all semantics and the bible.

The only thing gathered on the whole incident is that it is a conspiracy by AT&T and some other big companies that "run phones and voting machines" to create a false flag upon a Q patriot who was exposing the 5G lies of the Chinese conspirators to save America.

You know what I said literally yesterday about having more spirit than you but not intelligence yea I was half wrong.

Cool!

Get off our fucking internet, grandpa

He makes what I've seen sound almost like there's some sort of logic behind it but it's really just chaos.

>What's more likely? Another step in the Deep State War of Patriots, or a mentally ill retiree too deep into conspiracy theories and nonsense.

You realize I can like, open the boomer general, right? Like, it's two clicks away. Catalog, blumpf.
You really want to ask that?

>No one is calling the BOOMER, THE BOOMER, Mossad

Fuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuck youuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu

NO ONE IS EVEN MAKING THE MOST OBVIOUS JOKE

The boomer. He set off a bomb.

The BOOMER.
