"If we lose freedom here, there's no place to escape to. This is the last stand on earth." [Ronald Reagan] We are on the verge of government tyranny, as a now domestic enemy, the Democrat party, is attempting to impose a fraudulent election on the citizens; which undermines the Constitution, and would destroy the republic, and cause liberty to forever perish from the earth. If they succeed, the individual freedom heretofore enjoyed by every citizen, as reflected in the Bill of Rights, will be removed, and the people will no longer be "citizens," but rather "subjects;" meaning subservient to the government; to a tyrannical socialist dictatorship; a fundamental transformation similar to that which happened in today's Venezuela. The elite will maintain their wealth, and gain even more; but 97% of Americans, specifically, the middle- and working-class citizens, will lose economic opportunity and security, as the ruling socialists, will overrun the US population, with cheap foreign labor, through an open borders, and mass migration policy throughout our land; with permanent cheap laborers imported from Central America, Asia, and the Middle East. The American people will experience their historic standard of living, and economic opportunity, vanish, and ultimately reside in an economic state of poverty, with no way out, as the American Dream is forever relegated to the annals of history. No citizen should be deceived about the nature of our situation. We are at the precipice of government oppression, and inevitable enslavement. Notwithstanding, by the grace of God, the die is not yet cast. There is still time, and opportunity, to choose freedom; to
