American citizens and businesses depend on the protections of the rule of law and our democracy. They also donate to candidates. Let's get a movement going to #DefundTheSeditionists. Thread follows to help you identify who pressure your employer to pull their support from:

> 126 members of the @HouseGOP asked SCOTUS to throw out the results of democratic elections in GA, PA, WI and MI. 121 members voted AFTER terrorists stormed the capital to throw out the results in AZ. Upon reflection, 138 voted to throw out the results in PA a few hours later.

1/ Here's a list of the Members of Congress who signed onto the Amicus Brief to throw out the results in GA, PA, WI, MI. https://t.co/xj97pLZ45o

2/ Here's the list of the 121 members who voted "Yea" to throw out the results of the Arizona election AFTER terrorists stormed the Capitol to do the same. https://t.co/OtsnzycNXA

3/ Here's the list of the 138 members (yes, it went up!) who voted "Yea" 3 hours later to throw out the results of the Pennsylvania election. https://t.co/Ewl6QwCob8

4/ Now let's parse a bit. Here is a list of the #SeditionCaucus. Those members with three strikes. Signed onto Amicus brief, voted to throw out Arizona results and voted to throw out Pennsylvania results. There are 81 of them so this may take a few tweets.

13/ Parsing further, we have the #CYACaucus. These are the members who signed onto the Amicus brief, gave hope to the mobs that you can overturn the will of a democratic electorate but then didn't vote on the floor to do the same. There are 22 of them.

14/ If you want the list of this group LMK but they are easy to spot. They are the ones on TV right now trying to look statesmanlike and unload their sins. Thus, the #CYACaucus

15/ Now the #ALittleLateForWisdomCaucus. This is the group that voted to reject the AZ ballots AFTER the Capitol was stormed, then thought better of that decision and voted against rejecting the PA ballots:

Jake LaTurner, KS-2

16/ That's it. Seriously. With everything that happened there was only one member who thought maybe they should get right with our democracy after everything that happened.

17/ Now to the @WTFCaucus. These were the members who didn't vote to overturn the AZ results but then did vote to overturn the PA results 2 hours later. This is the group that looked at the mobs and violence and thought "I better get on these guys good side before I go home"

18/ There are remarkably, 18 members in the #WTFCaucus. This is why "only" 57% of the @HouseGOP voted to reject Arizona but 65% voted to overturn PA 3 hours later. So as with the prior, this is gonna take a few tweets.

19/ #WTFCaucus, part 1

Virginia Foxx, NC-5
Robert Wittman, VA-1
Glenn Thompson, PA-15
Alex Mooney, WV-2
Elise Stefanik, NY-21
David Kustoff, TN-8
Dan Meuser, PA-9
Greg Pence, IN-6 (the VP's brother!)
Fred Keller, PA-12
Greg Murphy, NC-3

21/ You will note that many of the members on this list were voting to throw out results in elections that they were declared the winner of.

"Things that make you go hmm."
