I agree. I have not been quiet; however, now is the time to acknowledge something my tweets about going home to your states and working from there have been trying to tell you. A simple reality staring you in the face from Washington is that MAGA has completely silenced=

> People asking why I\u2019ve been so quiet. Well it\u2019s because Qanon and the entire MAGA movement was a grift. I\u2019m disgusted at how the CYA Conservatives/GOP has left 75,000,000 voters hanging out to dry. I\u2019m done with politics & I never trusted either party. So long Patriots! #Truthdom pic.twitter.com/IUhxAldMtC
